PLEASE HELP!
THE ROYAL HOSPITAL FOR INCURABLES
DONNYBROOK, DUBLIN.
FOUNDED 1743.
HON. TREASURER'S "HALF-CROWN" FUND.
This Hospital is entirely non-sectarian, and receives patients from all parts of Ireland, without fee or reward. Unlike other Hospitals, it cannot make any charge to patients, and once elected we are committed to them for life, and not merely for short term of treatment.
There are 215 patients in the house, all sad cases, and many of them distressing, and this could be increased to 249 if funds permitted, but unfortunately we are upwards of £9,000 in debt.
There are patients from practically every county in Ireland, but local subscriptions do not nearly represent the cost of their maintenance, and we are entitled to support from all classes and creeds throughout the length and breadth of the land.
Contributions received at any Bank throughout the country on ordinary lodgment docket. Do kindly help even with Half-a-Crown. You won't miss it, and you will be doing a good work. £21 qualifies for Life Governorship.
A. G. HOLLINSHEAD, Hon. Treasurer.

SMALL BUYING PRICE.

"The Car you buy To Keep."

The interest aroused by the small buying price of the MORRIS is quickly stimulated by an inspection of the generous "Large Car" type of Chassis design, with its solidity of construction and powerful water-cooled 4-cylinder Engine. The extraordinary fulness of the equipment comes as a culminating point.

Fresh air's a fine tonic

THERE is no better way to get into the country and the fresh air than by motor car. Similarly there is no better car to take you there than the Good Maxwell. The Good Maxwell is comfortable because of its massive tyres, soft deep seats, and extra long front and rear springs. It is fast and economical, due to the even pulling power of the 20.9 H.P. engine. It is easy to drive, because of the comfortable and handy arrangements of controls. It is cheap.

GOLF.

THE AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIP.

ABNORMAL CONTRIVANCES.

OFFICIAL CONDEMNATION.

DR. MacCORMACK'S GREAT FINISH.

ST. ANDREWS, Monday Evening.

The golf course was thronged to-day by a large crowd anxious to see the majority of the first round ties in the 35th Amateur Golf Championship decided. Owing to the size of the entry (201) and with the object of finishing each day's play at a convenient hour, only 57 of the 73 ties in the first round were played, and the remainder, with almost the entire second round, will be decided to-morrow.

There were few ties of an outstanding nature bearing on the Championship, but many excellent games were provided, and here and there an unexpected result was returned. The greatest surprise was the overthrow of Bernard Darwin by Harry Braid, son of the famous professional, who defeated the English captain in hollow fashion.

Roger Wethered, the holder, provided the story of the day. Ernest Lassen, who won the Championship in 1908, and who was the runner-up in 1911, was defeated in a match the like of which is rarely seen in the Championship. After a half at the first hole the Yorkshire golfer appeared unable to stand up to the strain of playing to his redoubtable antagonist, and he played so badly that it was seldom that Wethered was called upon to hole out. Indeed, Lassen expended so many strokes that he several times picked up before he reached the green. It was a much more hollow victory than even the wide margin indicates. It was a sorry display on the part of a player who once held the Championship.

Tolley, after a very patchy display in the middle of his round, came away and won easily. Gordon Simpson was knocked out by the Yorkshire artisan golfer, Charles Hodgson, and John Caven, the finalist two years ago, played, perhaps, the most brilliant golf of the day. He was soon 3 up on Geoffrey MacCallum, who was generally expected to go furthest among the younger men who had entered.

A rare occurrence in championship golf was the hole in 1, which was achieved by Noel Layton. It was at the short eighth (150 yards) where it was accomplished—probably the poorest hole on the championship course. In the Open Championship holes in 1 have been fairly frequent, but only on two previous occasions has it been accomplished in the Amateur Championship, and each time it was at the rushes hole at Hoylake. The first occasion was in the opening championship in 1885 by Mr. Allan McFie, and in 1898 by Mr. Winkley Smith, a West Middlesex competitor.

Perhaps the most famous hole in the world—the road hole, the seventeenth, at St. Andrews—was played to-day by Dr. J. D. MacCormack, the Irish native champion, as it is seldom played, and his courage here won his first match for him from A. M. MacDonald, of Bruntsfield links. The hole has so frequently been described that it needs no further explanation. It is known that one of the most difficult shots on the classic links is the long second to the narrow green.

Dr. MacCormack had been down most of the way, for he started unsteadily and was 2 down at the ninth. He did not get on terms until the fifteenth hole had been played, and he was all square with 2 to play. But then he set about winning the match like a real champion. He played a magnificent second to the seventeenth green, and absolutely on the line through the narrow opening he ran to within a couple of yards from the hole. MacDonald played safe, and took 3 to get on, but any chance he might have had of a half in par 5 was dispelled when MacCormack ran down his putt for a grand 4. Dormy 1 he needed but a steady figure for the home hole, and he was content to get a half for the match—a great match to win.

The sensation of the day was provided by the announcement concerning the statement of the Rules of Golf Committee relating to the high tees used by two players. The notice obviously referred to the freak tees which had been used by the Hon. W. Brownlow, the son of Lord Lurgan, and Harold Gillies. Both used high contrivances, which consisted of two sections, raised about 18 inches above the ground, and employed drivers with an abnormally big face. The notice was posted after Mr. Brownlow had won his match and before Mr. Gillies had finished his tie with Mr. Beaumont Pease.

It has been known for several months that these tees were in use, and, although on all sides there is a consensus of opinion that the tees were entirely against the spirit of the game, nevertheless it is felt that an official move should have been made either before the Championship or delayed until after the Championship, as Brownlow and Gillies have been practising so long with them that, if they are now to discard the artificial tees, they will be at a disadvantage. The results were:—

FREAK METHODS.

OFFICIAL NOTICE.

The following was posted by the Royal and Ancient Club yesterday afternoon:—

The Rules of Golf Committee hopes that golfers, before making use of abnormal methods of play or abnormal implements, will earnestly consider whether they are acting in conformity with the spirit of the rules of golf, and, in particular, with the spirit of the regulations governing the form and make of golf clubs. The Committee considers that it is much to be deplored that players should endeavour to overcome the difficulties of the green by using implements which have never been associated with the game.

It is considered that the above notice is directed against Dr. Gillies, who at every tee but two in his first round championship match used his high tees to drive from. Interviewed, Dr. Gillies seemed displeased that the notice had been issued, and thought that the matter might have been brought to his notice by the authorities instead.

Entries for the Irish Professional Championship close to-morrow, and for the Amateur Championship on Tuesday, 3rd June.

THE JUNIOR CUP.

Next Friday will be the last day for sending in entries for the Junior Cup.

INTERESTING COMPETITION AT ORMEAU.

A novel form of golf competition, so far as the North of Ireland is concerned, was played at Ormeau, Belfast, yesterday, when professionals had as partners ladies from different clubs. It was a medal competition over 36 holes, and twelve couples took out cards. Miss J. Rice and Leo Wallace (Ormeau) were the winners, with 156 net. Miss Ferguson and S. Fairweather (Malone) and Miss E. Robinson and H. Hamill (Bangor) tied for second place with 158 net, and there was also a tie for third between Miss Brown and H. M'Neill (Donaghadee) and Miss Proctor and W. Murray (Gilling) with 159. The competition was arranged by Mr. Wilson, Northern Branch, Irish Professional Golfers' Association, and Miss Edwards, Hon. Secretary of the Irish Ladies' Golfing Union.

The net scores of the other players were:—Mrs. Gotto and W. Wallace (Royal Belfast), 167; Mrs. H. E. Reade and C. W. Pope (Fortwilliam), 172; Mrs. Murland and A. Robertson (Co. Down), 161; Miss Joyce and T. M'Kinstry (Balmoral), 181; Miss Blow and H. Fitzhugh (Knock), 165; Mrs. Corbett and J. Hamill (Ardglass), 166; Miss Halton and W. M'Carney (Co. Down), 172.

In the same competition Greenisland beat Cliftonville by 9 matches to 5.

R. AND S.P.U. G.S.

The R. and S.P.U. Golf Society held their annual competition over the Holyhead Links (by kind permission) on Saturday, when the following were the best cards returned:—R. Beattie (2)—77; T. E. Murray (16)—78; J. Walker (11)—79. The prize played for was presented by Mr. F. A. Campion, and this year's captain (Mr. George Hamlet) presented the prize. He thanked the committee for the reception accorded the team. Mr. F. B. Griffith responded. In the afternoon a foursome against bogey was played, when the two best cards were returned by R. Beattie and R. K. Taylor, and G. Hamlet and C. F. Hornsby.

ST. JAMES'S GATE G.S.

The following will represent the St. James's Gate Golfing Society against Clongowes Wood College at Delgany to-day, starting at 2 p.m.:—F. W. May and L. A. Herbert; J. A. Williams and C. L. Hill; C. Murray and H. S. Geoghegan; E. D Garland and R. K. Love; L. R. Shildrick and R. Dykes.

FOXROCK.—Ladies' Branch—Tuesday, 27th, flag competition. Draws at 10.30, 11, 2, and 3 o'clock. Thursday, 29th—Captain's prize. Draws at 10.30, 11, and 2 o'clock.

CRICKET.

M.C.C. V. SOUTH AFRICANS.

Following upon a blank day at Lord's on Saturday, there came some startling cricket in the match between the Marylebone Club and the South Africans yesterday. Thoroughly saturated on Saturday, and subjected to further rain on Sunday, the wicket was somewhat soft at the start yesterday, and Taylor, winning the toss, sent Marylebone in to bat. At the moment the weather outlook, appearing somewhat uncertain the wisdom of this course seemed open to question, but the afternoon turning out fine the South African captain's policy was attended with striking success. Indeed, so awkward to play at first were Pegler and Dixon, and so completely did the Marylebone batsmen fail to cope with the difficulties of the situation, that in fifty minutes six wickets were down for 46 runs. Had Catterall not missed Hearne when 38, the home side would probably have been all out before lunch. As it was, the last four wickets yielded 99 runs, 50 of these being added by Hearne and Douglas during a ninety minutes' partnership. Score:—

YORKSHIRE V. NOTTS.

The play at Bradford yesterday provided plenty of interest. At one time it seemed as if Yorkshire would play themselves into a very comfortable position, for they dismissed Notts for 147, and began their own innings in promising fashion, but in the end the champions had to be content with a first innings lead of 14 runs. DERBYSHIRE V. LANCASHIRE.

Owing to heavy rain during the week-end, it was not possible to resume play in this match at Chesterfield yesterday until one o'clock. Lancashire then continued their innings, and by the time the Derbyshire total had been passed six wickets had fallen. The pitch suited a slow bowler, and Storer met with splendid success, taking five wickets cheaply, and being difficult to play. Derbyshire, forty-one runs behind, went in a second time. At the end of the first over, however, the light was so bad that the umpires suspended the game for the day. Score:—

CATTLE.

METROPOLITAN, Monday.—Entries of fat beasts were slightly smaller than the previous Monday, and evidenced a fair trade at steady prices. Norfolks quoted 7/6 to 8/-, and heavy bulls 4/-. Sheep supplies rather larger, and a steady demand prevailed at firm rates. Fat Yorkshire quoted 10/-, small 12/-, small clipped 11/8, wools 13/-, Norfolks 13/4, Scottish clipped 12/-, while lambs realised 14/- to 14/6, all per stone of 8lbs., to sink the offal. Total supplies, 188 beasts and 2,752 sheep and lambs.

HULL, Monday.—Small supply of beef; best 14/- per stone, seconds 12/6, cows 10/-. Sheep a steady trade; young 1/4 per lb., large 1/-, ewes 8d., lambs 2/-. Pork slow; small 9/- per stone, large 7/- to 8/-. 382 beasts, 2,420 sheep, 341 pigs.

BIRKENHEAD, Monday.—Supplies—315 cattle and 2,709 lambs. There was a small supply of cattle on offer to-day. A better selling trade was experienced for medium weight, finished, stall-fed bullocks and heifers, which were scarce; but there was very little demand for grass-fed cattle. Best stall-fed bullocks and heifers made 11½d., grass-fed cattle 10d. to 10½d., cows and bulls 6d. to 8d. per lb. in sink. Larger supply of lambs met a steady trade at 19d. to 21d. per lb., according to quality. At dressed beef section trade was slow, sides making 9½d. to 9¼d., exceptional 9¾d. per lb.

GLASGOW, Monday.—Messrs. Hegarty and Kelly report short supplies of Irish fat cattle in Glasgow to-day (Monday). For all classes trade was firmer at an advance on last week's prices.—(Advt.)

NEWCASTLE, Monday.—Market still closed owing to foot-and-mouth disease regulations. Good supplies at lairs. Cattle 14/- per stone, small sheep 1/5, lambs 1/8, pork pigs 10d. per lb.

GRAIN.

FLOATING GRAIN CARGOES.—BALTIC, Monday.—WHEAT—Cargo market generally quiet, but holders required fully steady prices; steamer, 7,500 tons, Barusso (63½lbs.) OATS firm; Plate f.a.q. ex ship 21/9, landed 23/-; No. 2 Canadian Western 26/3, No. 3 ditto 25/3, No. 2 Canadian feed landed 24/- per 320lbs. English ranges from 9/6 to 11/- per 112lbs. f.o.r. MAIZE steady; Plate new ex ship to arrive 41/- to 39/-, as to position; Hickory King 40/6 landed; Karachi, also Calcutta, landed 42/-; No. 2 flat white African 40/6 landed, all 480lbs. MILLERS' OFFALS easier; broad bran quoted 7/9, ordinary 7/3, middlings 8/6 to 8/9, fine ditto 10/-, bags included, ex mill; light oats 6/3, powdered oat husks 7/3, feed oatmeal 9/3, ground oats 11/9, all per cwt. f.o.r. OATMEAL in better demand and values firmer owing to the increase in price of oats and limited stocks available; London-made flaked 17/-, rolled oats 16/6, medium and fine cut 16/6, coarse and medium pinhead 16/6, ordinary Scottish oatmeal 17/6 to 18/-, American 16/6 per cwt.

LIVERPOOL, Monday.—Higher quotations from Chicago were offset by increased shipments to the United Kingdom for past week, and forward deliveries of wheat here, after ruling steady at the start, later on gave way and fluctuated moderately, finishing over the worst point, though still showing a fair decline at the finish. C.i.f. parcels Australian afloat sold at 47/6 and Rosario-Santa Fe 63½lbs. July 44/4½. MAIZE—C.i.f. parcels of River Plate April-May sold at 33/6 and June-July 31/10½ per qr. Wheat on the spot quietly steady at late rates. Maize spot parcels quiet and easier in value. FLOUR steadily held at late rates. Graded wheat futures opened unchanged; then fluctuated moderately, and closed ½d. lower on the day. Maize options closed ½d. per cental under Saturday.

PROVISIONS.

LIVERPOOL, Monday.—Irish and Danish BACON continues in good demand at further enhanced prices, being now held at 108/- to 115/- and 104/- to 108/- per cwt. respectively. Holders of American in consequence display more confidence and, despite prospects of freer arrivals at this port in the near future, generally ask higher prices. Wiltshires being raised to 66/- and 63/-, long clears 72/- to 79/-, backs 75/- to 79/-, and light-weights of Cumberlands 69/- to 73/-, with rather more general inquiry. Canadian Wiltshires held higher at 74/- to 82/- owing to the strength in Irish and Danish. HAMS firm and in fair request, especially for short cut at fully late rates. Shoulders steady for square and New Yorks, and picnics scarcer at 57/- to 60/- per cwt. LARD on the spot scarce at late rates for prime steam, but American refined quiet and easier at 61/9 to 64/6 per cwt. CHEESE steadier, and Canadian raised 1/- to 81/- and 83/- per cwt., being now wanted for both white and coloured. BUTTER quiet and easier for Danish at 185/- to 190/-, but Colonial steadier, and 168/- to 170/- asked for New Zealand and 160/- to 162/- for Australian. EGGS quiet at 12/3 to 12/9 for Irish hen and 12/6 to 13/- for duck per 120.

PATRICK KEHOE, LTD., Irish Bacon Curers and Lard Refiners. Importers of American Provisions. (Estd. 100 years).—103 FRANCIS ST., DUBLIN.—(Advt.)

REFINED LARD FUTURES—LIVERPOOL, Monday.—Chicago was more encouraging and, with a fair demand here during the early session, September improved 3d. per cwt., and other months fully maintained late rates. May and June realised 61/9, July 62/- to 61/9 and Sept. 63/6 per cwt., with Aug. quoted 62/6 to 62/9 per cwt. Afternoon cables had little effect, the market closing unchanged to 3d. dearer on the day. May and July sold at 61/9 and Sept. 63/3 to 63/6 per cwt.

Cottonseed steady; Egyptian black June sellers £13, white £11 17/6, Bombay June-July £10 per ton.

LINSEED CAKES—Notwithstanding the fact that the trade at the present moment rules extremely quiet, prices if anything are inclined to harden both for spot and forward positions, best London-made to-day being quoted £11 to £11 5/-, while some Bombay and Spanish linseed cakes have changed hands for early shipment at £10 10/- to £10 15/- per ton. Cotton Cakes—The manufacture of English is very much restricted owing to the short supply of seed, and crushers ask full prices of £8 2/6 to £8 5/-, while Egyptian-made are relatively cheaply mentioned at £7 7/6 to £7 8/9 per ton ex ship terms both for afloat parcels and also for May shipment. Decorticated Cotton Cakes—Some Brazilian in store sells quietly at £12, and meal £12 10/- per ton, while for arrival £11 10/- per ton ex ship would be accepted for Brazilian cakes. Groundnut Cakes—A limited quantity of decorticated is available at £11 10/-, semi-decorticated £10 15/-, and undecorticated £8 15/- per ton. Offals—Best town middlings maintain their prices of £8 15/- to £9 per ton, but, on the other hand, bran is fully 5/- per ton cheaper at £7 10/- to £7 15/- per ton. Maize Foods—Garton's maize gluten feed continues in fair request at £9 to £9 5/-, and maize germ cake meal £10 to £10 5/- per ton.

PEER KILLED IN MOTOR SMASH.

Lord Cozens Hardy, K.C., has been killed in a motor car accident in Munich. The deceased, who was born in 1868, was Liberal member for Parliament for Norfolk from 1918 to 1920. He was called to the Bar in 1893, and made K.C. in 1912.

A Reuter message adds that Lord Cozens Hardy, while going round a bend in the road near Mangen (Upper Bavaria), tried to avoid crashing into an approaching motor car by putting on his brakes suddenly. The car overturned, and he was killed immediately. The other occupants of the car were slightly injured.

NEWS SUMMARY.

IRELAND.

Four thousand Dublin dock labourers went on strike yesterday as a protest against the arrest of the forty-five men who occupied Liberty Hall on Saturday night.—(Page 5.)

The Belfast Corporation intend to promote a bill in the Northern Parliament to extend the boundaries of the city by taking in rural districts now outside the jurisdiction of the Council.—(Page 9.)

There is no improvement in the strike situation in Derry. Yesterday the Corporation decided to close the city abattoir.—(Page 5.)

Mr. J. J. Walsh, the Director of the Tailteann Games, was the principal speaker at a meeting in Belfast last night, at which it was decided to form a Council to further the interests of the Games.—(Page 8.)

The dissolved Dublin Corporation yesterday protested against the Government's order handing over the administration of the city to three Commissioners.—(Page 7.)

The fact that a Dublin cabman was heir to a big Kildare estate was disclosed in a will case in the Dublin Courts yesterday.—(Page 5.)

GREAT BRITAIN.

The King and Queen of Italy were entertained at a State banquet at Buckingham Palace last evening.—(Page 5.)

Mr. J. H. Thomas, the Colonial Secretary, is ill with pleurisy. His engagements for this week have been cancelled.—(Page 5.)

ABROAD.

SPORTING.

At Kilbeggan yesterday Black Lass won the Brusna Plate, Prudent Lad the Midland Plate, Rare Sort the Loughnagore Plate, May Ellen the Stand Plate, Up at the Pole the Tally-ho Plate, and Avickeen the Kilbeggan Challenge Cup.—(Page 8.)

At York Woodend won the Londesborough Plate.—(Page 8.)

FINANCIAL.

London Stock Markets were quiet and price changes narrow, except among Oil Shares.—(Page 9.)

Lombard street was compelled to borrow from the Bank of England in view of expected stringency during the next few days. Day-to-day money was sometimes 2¾ per cent. Discounts were harder. Foreign Exchanges had a better tendency.—(Page 9.)

In Dublin the National Loan closed weaker at 92⅞. Bank Stock steady. Marconis improved on the circular.—(Page 9.)

A Vital Estimate.

Dail Eireann's programme is overcrowded, but there is at least one estimate for which adequate time must be found. If the claims of secondary education are butchered to make a Parliamentary holiday, another injustice will be done to the worst treated body of men in Ireland and the country's best interests will suffer. The grievances of our secondary teachers would seem to be intolerable but for the humiliating fact that we have been content to tolerate them. These men remain the Ishmaels of the State, and, if any patriotism survives in them, the fact is almost a miracle. The British Government had promised to improve their lot, and would have kept its promise if national freedom had not been achieved. For the secondary teachers, at any rate, this freedom has been a sorry boon. The Free State Government admits their grievances, but has done nothing. As Mr. John Thompson said in the letter which we printed yesterday, the teachers are still without proper scales of salaries or prospect of pensions: "the majority of teachers do not, at the beginning of a school year, know what their salaries are going to be." In many cases teachers, with wives and families, do not know at the end of a school term what employment, if any, they will have in the following term. Their hardships are made greater by contrast with the happier fate of their fellows in Northern Ireland, where the Government realises the value of education. There registered teachers enjoy a minimum salary of £210 and the certainty of yearly increments. The Free State's Minister for Education admitted six months ago that in regard to salary, tenure and pensions the position of the secondary teachers was indefensible. If nothing is done for them when the new estimates are discussed, that position is likely to continue for at least another year. We submit that such treatment would be a national scandal of the gravest kind, and we hope earnestly that the Dail will refuse to connive at it.

The obstacle to decent provision for the secondary teachers is the Government's financial straits. Mr. Blythe could afford immediately to inaugurate a scheme which would put the Free State teachers on a footing with their Northern colleagues; but he hesitates to accept its commitments for the future, since in a few years the process of increment might involve a new charge of some £200,000. We acknowledge the difficulty, but the teachers' claims are supported by indefeasible arguments. In the first place, they are asking for bare justice, and a Government that denies bare justice to any body of citizens sins against the first principle of freedom. In the next place, education is the very last service on which the Government should dare to skimp necessary expenditure. Lack of education is responsible to-day for the bulk of this country's troubles—for the restlessness and idleness of large masses of the people, for the backward condition of our industries and agriculture, for the absence of any public opinion worthy of the name, for the appalling crudities of political thought which President Cosgrave derided on Sunday in County Limerick. This lack of education exists chiefly because the men who teach the potentially constructive classes in the Free State are handicapped atrociously by the State's indifference to themselves and to their work. If the Government and the Dail could be brought to see that a contented and efficient teaching service is the State's best insurance against public ignorance, public apathy and public folly, they would meet the secondary teachers' full claims without another week's delay. Mr. Blythe has plenty of courage. We urge him, and we urge the Dail, to display the still rarer quality of imagination. We beg them to realise that prompt and adequate provision for the secondary teachers will be an act not merely of belated justice, but of true statesmanship. Here is an opportunity for the "business men's" party in Dail Eireann to fulfil one of the functions for which it was elected. Commerce cannot prosper in any country where education is despised.

Industrial Anarchy.

The latest performance of what may be termed "disorganised Labour" in Dublin surely has reached the limit of proletarian stupidity. About a fortnight ago there was a dispute in the Dublin gas works, as a result of which all the gas workers went on strike in defiance of the orders of the Executive of the Transport Workers' Union. A strike committee was formed within the ranks of the Transport Union—a kind of imperium in imperio—and the strike continues without the slightest sign of settlement. On Saturday last the Executive of the Union decided to close Liberty Hall on the following day, but shortly before midnight the hall was entered by a number of men who refused to leave it, and more or less took possession of the premises in the strikers' name. The Executive of the Transport Union communicated with the authorities, with the result that yesterday morning the men, to the number of forty-five, were removed in custody by a force of soldiers and police, and were kept in the Bridewell until the afternoon, when they were released on bail. When the workers at the Dublin docks presented themselves for duty in the ordinary way yesterday morning they were approached by emissaries of Mr. Larkin, who informed them that a general strike had been declared and that they must cease work. Large numbers of the men were quite willing to strike in sympathy with the forty-five prisoners. Others were not so willing, but in the long run they were persuaded to join the movement, and within a few hours the whole quay-side was deserted. A prolonged stoppage seemed to be likely when the forty-five men were released in the afternoon, and Mr. Larkin, having achieved his immediate object, ordered the men to go back to their jobs to-day.

The position is growing rapidly intolerable. The Executive of the Transport Union seems to have lost all control over the men who are supposed to obey its orders; and Mr. Larkin, who has no responsibility to anybody, seems to be able to do as he chooses. In the circumstances, employers are completely bewildered. The whole Labour movement in these islands is based on the principle of collective bargaining. The executive of any union is supposed to be in a position to negotiate on behalf of its members, and the representatives of employers with whom negotiations are conducted are entitled generally to assume that any agreement to which an executive is a party will be observed loyally by the men. So far as the Irish Transport and General Workers' Union is concerned, however, this principle, apparently, is in abeyance. If the men do not happen to like the decisions of their Executive, they calmly ignore them. Organised Labour obviously cannot continue to maintain this preposterous condition of affairs. In the last analysis it depends for its very existence on the good-will of the general public, and, if it proposes to retain a shred of that good-will in the City of Dublin, it must take early steps to prevent a recurrence of yesterday's disgraceful affair. The people cannot allow themselves to be held up to ransom in such a ruthless fashion. Stability is an essential condition of all prosperity, and, if a "lightning" strike can be declared at any moment on any pretext, all ordered industry and commerce in the Free State will be at an end. We have much sympathy with the Executive of the Transport Union, but it must assert its authority over its unruly members. If it fails, the whole Labour movement in this country will be in danger of early collapse.

Drainage Schemes.

English farmers are giving much consideration to the problem of drainage of fen lands. The war, with its period of food shortage, brought the question into public notice, and now the Ministry of Agriculture is showing sympathetic interest. At a meeting of the Council of Agriculture last week Mr. Buxton announced that a beginning had been made. Some four hundred acres under the control of the Crown, near King's Lynn, have been chosen for a Government reclamation scheme. The Ministry awaits the result of this scheme before it brings forward others of a like nature. At this meeting it was stated that millions of acres of grass and arable land were yielding only a tithe of their due return owing to lack of proper drainage. A resolution was passed requesting the Government to give County Councils the necessary powers to deal with the matter. In Ireland we are not unfamiliar with drainage schemes. In the Bann area in the North, and in the Barrow area in the South, Irish farmers have suffered greatly from floods, and many projects have been suggested as a remedy for the evil. Up to the present, however, the financial difficulty has presented an impassable barrier to progress. Our problem, however, is somewhat different in kind. In England the greatest need is the drainage of land that is waterlogged. Here it is rather to prevent frequently recurring floods from damaging areas that are otherwise productive. Nevertheless, England's handling of her drainage schemes will be watched with interest in this country.

Sound Waves.

The last of the big experimental explosions at La Cortine military camp, in the Creuse Department in the centre of France, took place yesterday. In the first, on May 15th, and the second on Friday last, ten tons of melinite were used, but for the last two the weight of explosive was reduced to five tons. The object of these experiments was to test the passage of sound waves through the air. It is known that sound passes through "zones of silence" and can be heard in distant places when nothing is heard at points much nearer to the place of origin. At La Cortine sound lived up to its reputation for capricious movement. The first explosion was not heard in Paris, or at Limoges, but in London a rush of air was felt at Westminster gas works. For the second test the melinite was placed in rocky soil and better results were obtained. The explosion was not heard in Paris, but the instrument at the Eiffel Tower showed a deviation. The sound was registered at Moulins, Lyons and at Bordeaux and was heard clearly in Geneva. The two smaller explosions produced no remarkable results, and the tests seem to have thrown little light on the puzzle of "silent zones." During the war many remarkable inconsistencies were noticed in the sound waves from gun-fire or mines. Gun-fire at the front could be heard distinctly in a little alley in Hampstead between high walls, and sound appeared to travel better against the wind than with it.

COURT AND PERSONAL.

Last night Prince and Princess Arthur of Connaught were present at the anniversary dinner of the Royal Geographical Society, which was held in the Connaught Rooms, London. Next week Prince Arthur will be the principal speaker at the banquet of the Empire Mining and Metallurgical Congress, which will take place in the Guildhall, under the presidency of Viscount Long of Wraxall.

To-day Baroness Furnival celebrates her birthday. She is the nineteenth holder of this ancient title, which was created in 1295. From 1453 to 1616 the Barony was merged in the Earldom of Shrewsbury, when it fell into abeyance. This, with two short interludes, continued till 1913, when the abeyance was terminated in favour of the present peeress, only daughter of the fourteenth Baron Petre. Her marriage with Lieutenant-Commander Augustine W. S. Agar, V.C., D.S.O., took place in 1920, and the Baroness retains her surname of Petre, hyphened with Agar.

The Duchess of St. Albans, who has been staying in the country since she returned to England, has arrived in London, and is spending a few days in Bryanston square with her son-in-law and daughter, Lord Richard and Lady Moyra Cavendish. Viscount and Viscountess Powerscourt and the Hon. Doreen Wingfield have left Powerscourt, County Wicklow, for London, where they will stay with the Dowager Lady Powerscourt for a portion of the season. Lady Ardilaun, who has been spending the past two months in London, has returned to her house in St. Stephen's Green, Dublin.

* * *

The Marquis and Marchioness of Sligo will leave Westport House this week, and are expected to arrive in London on Thursday. The Countess of Lisburne has returned to London from a short stay in Paris. The Earl and Countess of Pembroke and Montgomery, with Lady Patricia Herbert, are expected this week at 12 Hyde Park Gardens, which they have taken for the remainder of the season. Viscount and Viscountess Allendale will leave Bywell Hall, Northumberland, today for London. The Marquis of Headfort is touring in Devonshire, and will shortly join the Marchioness of Headfort in London.

Lord Teynham, who is fifty-seven to-day, is the eighteenth holder of the Barony conferred on Sir John Roper in 1616. The fourteenth Baron assumed the surname of Curson in 1788, and in 1813 this was changed by Royal licence to Roper-Curzon. The present peer formerly held a commission in The Buffs, and served in the European war and received the Legion of Honour. He married the daughter of the late Lieutenant-Colonel H. Green Wilkinson, Scots Guards, and they have two sons. The elder, the Hon. Christopher Roper-Curzon, is in the Royal Navy.

ROYAL VISIT TO BELFAST.

DATE OF ARRIVAL OF THE DUKE AND DUCHESS OF YORK.

The Duke and Duchess of York will arrive in Belfast on Saturday, July 19, and will stay at Clandeboye till 21st, when the ceremony of unveiling the Queen's University War Memorial will take place.

The General Purposes Committee of the Belfast Corporation yesterday decided, subject to the approval of the Corporation, to present Their Royal Highnesses with an address of welcome. It was also decided to confer the Freedom of the City upon His Royal Highness.

THE LATE BISHOP BALFOUR.

The value of the estate left by the late Right Rev. Bishop Balfour was inadvertently stated in yesterday's Irish Times as £104,499. The correct figure is £10,499.

GREATER DUBLIN RECONSTRUCTION.

THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT BILL.

(BY ARTIFEX.)

At the moment of its demise the late Municipal Council of Dublin was engaged in negotiations with many of the townships and Rural District Councils—and was actually drafting a scheme—for a wide extension of the city boundaries. Whether the new City Commissioners will consider it to be their duty to continue the policy of the Corporation in this particular is an open question, but it is extremely unlikely. Concurrently with the preparation of the Corporation's annexation scheme a private bill was prepared—with the sanction of the Minister of Local Government—and is now being actively promoted, to incorporate the townships of Kingstown, Blackrock, and Dalkey as a Southern Borough. Hanging over the heads of both these conflicting projects is the intention of the Minister of Local Government (recently announced to a deputation of the Greater Dublin movement) to appoint a Commission of Inquiry to examine the whole complicated problem of local government in Greater Dublin.

It was anticipated confidently that the Local Government Bill would contain proposals to clarify this confused and uncertain position of affairs. In fact, however, the bill does not directly touch the question of local government in urban districts anywhere. Only by implication does it affect the problem of "Greater Dublin," but that implication is so direct and important as to demand careful examination before the bill reaches its second reading stage. In its present form the bill seriously prejudices the whole position and prospects of the logical reorganisation of our future civic government.

The whole population of the City and County of Dublin is less than 500,000. Of that population about 450,000 live in the area which must be embraced in any adequate extension of the existing area of municipal administration; for such an extension must necessarily bring large portions of the Rathdown, South Dublin, and North Dublin rural districts into the new Municipal Area. The portion of the County which would then remain under the control of the reconstructed County Council would be not only very small in area and sparse in its population, but would inevitably continue to shrink as the motor car and the motor bus carries the urban population further and further afield. Not only so, but the new County Council which, under the new bill, would continue to contain twenty or more representatives of the Townships, would have to be practically reconstructed on the day when these Townships become (as inevitably they must) part of the Municipality of Greater Dublin.

How, then, is the existing civic chaos to be approached and the prospect of fresh confusion to be avoided? By means, I suggest, of a simple and comprehensive amendment of the bill. That amendment should provide (1) that the new Act shall not apply to any part of the County of Dublin, and (2) that the whole question of local government in the City and County of Dublin shall at once be referred to a Commission of Inquiry. The case for treating the City and County of Dublin as a single and special problem is overwhelming. Dublin is the State Capital—the Metropolitan County. It is by far the greatest shipping and traffic centre of the State. It is the commercial, educational, and social headquarters of the State. In the variety and importance of its national functions it is a capital city in more respects than any other city in the world. To substitute order for the chaos in its present form of government is probably the most urgent and most difficult problem before the Free State.

The solution of that problem should not be regarded as incidental to local problems elsewhere; for such a solution would simply mean new patchwork and increased confusion. The first step is to cut Dublin out of the bill. The second, and immediate, step is to refer the whole of its civic problems to a competent Commission of Inquiry.

THE CITY OF DAVID.

PROFESSOR MACALISTER'S DISCOVERIES.

"The Recent Excavations on the Hill of Ophel, Jerusalem," was the subject of a lecture delivered by Professor R. A. S. Macalister before the Royal Irish Academy yesterday afternoon at 19 Dawson street, Dublin. The lecture was illustrated by lantern slides. Professor Sidney Young presided.

Shortly after the occupation of Palestine by the British troops, the lecturer said, a Board of Archæologists was instituted, with certain privileges and rights over the antiquities of the country. A scheme was drawn up for the complete examination of the whole City of Jerusalem by an international body of archæologists. For various reasons that scheme fell through, and the only Society left to carry on the work was that to which he belonged. He, therefore, found himself in control of all the excavation work, a position of great responsibility. The work, however, could not be commenced until a sum of £5,000 had been subscribed, but through the generosity of various subscribers this sum was contributed in a very short time.

* * * * *

The problem before them was to determine the bounds of the original City of David. It was hard to determine what was included in the walls of the old city, which extended further south than the modern Jerusalem. On the southern side of the city there were two hills, and tradition ascribed to the western one the original site of the city. That hill appeared to be more suitable for the site of a city, as it was higher than the eastern one, and not so easily commanded by a military force; but there was one fatal objection to that theory, which was that it had no natural supply of water.

Modern scholars were coming to the conclusion that the site of the City of David must have been situated on the eastern hill, and their purpose was to open the great quarries in the hill in order to see if there were any traces which would justify that conclusion.

The level of the city rose considerably in a short time through the throwing of the rubbish into the streets. New buildings were built on the foundations of old houses, and thus stratified foundations were formed.

One slide was shown of a wall which had Jebusite remains at the bottom, and Roman, Byzantine, and Crusader's remains superimposed. It was a remarkable and unfortunate fact, the lecturer said, that the Hebrew strata seemed to have disappeared completely. That was due to the destruction committed by Simon Maccabeus, who completely destroyed the Jerusalem of the Kings. If the Hebrew strata had not been destroyed it would have been found between the Roman and the Jebusite stratas.

* * * * *

Digging to a lower level he found an old Jebusite sanctuary, whose rock surface was covered with cup-marks, and nearby he discovered traces of a spring that existed in the tertiary period. Adjacent to this sanctuary he and his colleague, Mr. Duncan, found a number of large stones blocking up a rock fissure, and when these were removed they found the entrance of a tunnel, which led into a chamber. These passages were filled with silt and had to be cleared. In this rubbish he found fragments of potsherd dating back to 2000 B.C.

Professor Macalister then showed a plan of what he considered was the old Jebusite city. In the middle of the northern side he found evidence in the ruins of the old city wall of a large breach, which he believed to be the breach made by David's troops when the city was stormed. He referred to the Biblical story of Soloman having repaired the breach of David, his father, mentioning that the root meaning of the word Millo was "repair."

Over this breach a tower had been built, and in the wall of the ruins small pieces of pottery of the period of David were discovered. Byzantine residences had been built on the ruins of this tower, and naturally many of the stones used for the Byzantine houses had been taken from the ruined tower. One of the stones had the figure of Astarte inscribed. This, the lecturer maintained, was significant, in view of the numerous references to Solomon's idolatory.

* * * * *

Above the Byzantine house was one of the Roman period. In it were found mosaic floors in good condition, and a portion of a sun dial, and some plaques bearing rosettes on one side and various designs on the other. One of these designs exhibited a tree flanked by two snakes and some rivers, which, the lecturer thought, might have been an attempt to represent the Garden of Eden.

A hearty vote of thanks to the lecturer terminated the proceedings.

LONDON LETTER.

THE ITALIAN VISIT.

59 FLEET STREET, LONDON,
MONDAY NIGHT.

The arrival of the King and Queen of Italy, with the Prince of Piedmont and Princess Mafalda, at Victoria Station this afternoon was a brilliant spectacle. The crowds assembled in the neighbourhood of the station were so great that I took nearly a quarter of an hour to get through to the platform. The railway authorities are not very imaginative; for the decorations for Royal visitors at Victoria are almost stereotyped. Heavy crimson draperies, the Union Jack and the national flag of a friendly nation draped on either side of the entrance to the Royal waiting room, with an abundance of flowering plants added to a scarlet-covered platform constitute the usual effort, and to-day there was no change. The space on the platform where the visiting monarchs are received is cut off from the remainder of the station by two galleries at right angles to the wall. One was occupied by ladies, and the other by representatives of the Press, including many Italian journalists.

The rather common-place setting, however, provided a fine background for the gathering assembled to meet the visitors. The Lord Mayor and the Sheriffs, all in levée dress, were early arrivals, followed by Mr. Ramsay Macdonald, looking most distinguished in Privy Councillor's dress, plumed hat and gleaming patent leather boots. Mr. Henderson, the Home Secretary, was the next arrival, and in a few minutes the scarlet carpeting was concealed by a gathering of naval and military men in uniform and ladies in summer dresses. Prince and Princess Arthur of Connaught were the first Royalties to arrive, and others followed in quick succession, the strains of the National Anthem being almost continuous. A wait ensued, and then the music burst forth again. A general officer steps up to the Prime Minister and leads him to the Royal waiting-room. It is some minutes before Mr. Macdonald returns to his place from his conversation with the King.

The Queen's Wrap.

In another minute or so there is a general stiffening; the men stand at attention and the ladies begin to curtsey as the King, followed by the Queen, comes out between the flags. The Queen, in a dress of slate grey, richly embroidered, wears a toque of dull cloth of silver, and carries an umbrella to match her dress. Over her gown she wore a perfectly magnificent cloak of soft white ostrich feathers, falling nearly to the bottom of her dress. All the women present seemed to breathe rather deeply at the sight of this gorgeous wrap, and the curtseying ladies followed it with their eyes as the Queen passed them. Round her neck she had three rows of very large pearls of splendid orient. For a few moments there was a great exchange of greetings, and then a railway official pointed out exactly where the Royal saloon would stop, and the King and Queen took up their positions.

The Welcome.

Suddenly, without even a puff, the Royal train appeared round a bend, and the first portion passed slowly by until the Royal saloon appeared. It drew up at the exact spot, and the King of Italy stepped out, clad in a grey uniform, and warmly grasped the hand of the King. Then he turned and kissed the Queen's hand, while the King assisted Queen Elena to alight. The tall, slight figures of the Prince of Piedmont and Princess Mafalda next appeared in the doorway, followed by that of the Prince of Wales. After a general exchange of greetings and introductions, the King went over to the Prime Minister and presented him and Mr. Henderson to King Victor. The Queen did the same with the Queen of Italy, and then a move was made to the carriages. Outside the station a guard of honour of the Coldstream Guards had to be inspected, while Fascisti lined up in long rows, wearing black shirts, stretched out their hands and shouted their strange greeting "Alala." The drive to Buckingham Palace began amid scenes of almost frantic enthusiasm outside the station. There must have been many thousands of Italians gathered there to cheer their King and Queen.

Mr. J. H. Thomas.

Mr. J. H. Thomas is lying at his home at Dulwich rather seriously ill, though it is hoped that timely steps will avert a long illness. The Colonial Secretary was present at the Empire Service at the Stadium yesterday and looked well, though he had a slight cold. Early this morning he complained of pains in the chest, and the symptoms became so pronounced that the doctor who was summoned diagnosed pleurisy. The illness, unfortunate in any event, is all the more so since it was hoped that a move might be made in the settlement of the boundary question. It is regarded as certain that Mr. Thomas will be away from the Colonial Office for some days, possibly weeks, and his absence is sure to have a delaying effect on the situation.

An Irish Casino.

The writer of "A Londoner's Diary," writing in the Evening Standard to-day, says that he is told that negotiations were concluded last Saturday for the establishment of a casino at a small village on the Irish coast, a few miles North of Dublin. The building will be on an elaborate scale, with diversions other than gambling, and the place is to be designed particularly to attract English visitors. At present it is not intended that roulette shall be played there—chemin de fer and baccarat will be the chief games, with a room for la boule for the amusement, and possible profit, of less adventurous gamblers. The casino may be extensively patronised by the wealthy citizens of the big towns in the North of England, but I fancy that Londoners will still find it easier to take a trip to Dieppe or Boulogne, and lose their money in Continental surroundings.

"Songs of the Gael."

The fantasy on Irish tunes, written by Mr. C. Walton O'Donnell, entitled "Songs of the Gael," first given at the Empire Day celebration, is being performed at the Empire Exhibition every afternoon and evening this week. The fantasia is of some length and a little out of the common for popular audiences, but it is received with great applause, and parts have to be repeated. The composition is extremely attractive. Mr. O'Donnell has captured some beautiful tunes, and enriched them with real feeling, while the scoring is excellent.

Kelvingrove.

Liberals in the Lobby of the House to-day were not at all disposed to talk about the Kelvingrove result. One or two remarked that they never expected that the Liberals would win the seat, but this was followed by an admission that the smallness of the vote came as a shock. Liberals at the moment are in a very uncertain frame of mind. Many of them wish to drop their support of the Socialist Government, but feel that they must carry out the wishes of their leaders. A revolt, however, will not be delayed much longer. The exhibition of last Friday, when the Government was to be taught the value of Liberal support by the absence of many Liberals at Brighton, and the rush to save it when it became known that the danger was real, greatly annoyed many Liberal supporters, because they maintain that such conduct is making the party ridiculous.

Considerable improvement in the employment situation in Canada is reported.

FOUR THOUSAND DOCKERS

CEASE WORK FOR A DAY.

LIGHTNING STRIKE IN DUBLIN.

UNION OFFICIALS' PROTEST.

Four thousand men ceased work at the Dublin docks yesterday, and as a result serious inconvenience was caused to the trading community. Fortunately, the strike was of short duration. Some men returned to duty last night, and it is expected that the conditions will be normal to-day.

The strike was neither authorised nor approved by the Executive Committee of the Irish Transport and General Workers' Union. It was called by Mr. James Larkin and his followers as a protest against the arrest of the forty-five men who were removed from Liberty Hall by the police on Sunday morning.

Not many dockers seem to have heard of the threat to suspend work made on Sunday night, for the men trooped to their work as usual yesterday morning, and seemed in no mood to lose a day's pay. Many of them had started work, and were getting into their stride when a number of men marched down the quays from the direction of Liberty Hall. They visited the shipping companies' premises in turn, and called out the men who were at work in the coal-yards, goods stores and other places. Anyone who was slow to obey the orders of the picket was told that he could take the consequences if he refused. In some cases, it is alleged, a very threatening attitude was adopted by the strike organisers.

Having been compelled to cease work, the men marched to Liberty Hall, in the vicinity of which they stood for a considerable time.

TRADE DISLOCATED.

As a result of the pickets' activities, the loading and discharging of all cargo boats was brought to a standstill. Boats arriving during the morning had to remain unloaded, and drivers of all vehicles—horse-drawn and motor—were prevented from drawing goods from the sheds.

Among other delays caused by the strike was the unshipment of animals connected with Hengler's Circus, but these were ultimately landed in good time for their appearance at the Theatre Royal.

The B. and I. Company's passenger boat to Liverpool left as usual last night, as also did the mail boat from Kingstown.

This one-day strike is another symptom of the dissension that exists in the Transport Workers' Union. On the 13th inst. 900 employés of the Alliance and Dublin Consumers' Gas Company ignored the advice of the Union's officials, went on strike, and appointed Mr. James Larkin as their leader. The Executive Committee refused to give them strike pay, and decided to close Liberty Hall. On Saturday night the hall was occupied by a number of men, who were arrested some hours later.

The Executive Committee explains its reasons for closing the hall in the following statement, which was issued yesterday:—

"Owing to the organised obstruction which has been carried on for some time past in and about Liberty Hall, making it impossible to carry on business in a proper manner, it has been decided that Liberty Hall shall be closed until further notice. All business hitherto transacted there shall for the present be transacted at No. 42 York street."

The offices at Liberty Hall were, therefore, closed yesterday, but a big body of men filled the large meeting room, and the windows were thrown wide open. Several women were also present. Under the railway arches in Beresford place and immediately in front of the building itself a considerable crowd assembled, apparently in the expectation of hearing some announcement.

TIME TO ASSERT RIGHTS.

In a further statement which it issued last evening, the Executive Committee alleges that Mr. Larkin "has tried by every means in his power to break the unity of the Labour movement in Ireland and to disrupt the union which he failed to capture."

The statement concludes:—"The time has now arrived when, in the interests of trade unionism, the members must assert their rights and control their own organisation, and refuse to accept dictation from an individual who is no longer even a member of the union. No person except a duly accredited representative of the union has any right to call upon the members to cease work, and in the present case no such official call has been made. In the circumstances it is the duty of members to remain at work in defiance of this attempt, and in this way strengthen the hands of the Executive Committee in taking the necessary steps to deal with the situation which has arisen.

45 MEN IN THE DOCK.

CHARGED UNDER PUBLIC SAFETY ACT.

The men arrested early on Sunday morning at Liberty Hall by a party of military and police appeared in the dock at the Dublin Police Court yesterday. They were charged under the Public Safety Act with preventing the lawful occupation of the building.

After formal evidence of arrest they were released on giving an undertaking to surrender to their own bail on Wednesday at 1.30 o'clock, when the case will be heard, and to keep away from Liberty Hall in the meantime.

Yesterday morning a large crowd congregated outside the Bridewell, where the prisoners were detained. There were occasional bursts of cheering. "The Red Flag" was sung and greetings exchanged with some of the prisoners who appeared at the windows of the cells.

Only those having business in the courts were admitted, and though many of the sympathisers of the men who presented themselves at the gates leading to the courtyard were turned away by the D.M.P. men on duty, there was no unpleasant incident. Mr. James Larkin's arrival at 11.30 o'clock was the signal for a great outburst of cheering. He was accompanied by Mr. A. Lynn, barrister-at-law, and proceeded to the cells, presumably to interview the prisoners.

Later in the day a dense crowd congregated outside the courts, and cordons of policemen in plain clothes were drawn across the street, and a passage was cleared immediately in front of the building.

It was not until after three o'clock that the case was called. All the men answered to their names. Many of them were middle-aged, and all of them belonged to the labouring class. The magistrate was Mr. Cooper, K.C.

Mr. John O'Byrne, who (instructed by the Chief State Solicitor) represented the authorities, outlined the charge, which was brought under the Public Safety Act. It was for preventing the lawful occupation of Liberty Hall and unlawfully interfering with the lawful use and enjoyment of the premises. Under Section 1, Sub-section 2, accused persons, he said, were liable to be imprisoned for a term not exceeding twelve months, with or without hard labour, and to be fined £50, or in default a further term of six months' imprisonment.

Station Sergeant Mangan gave evidence of arrest. He said that on Sunday morning, at about three o'clock, he went to Liberty Hall with three other men. They waited there until five o'clock, when the military arrived. The military party consisted of two officers and twenty men. The officer in charge knocked at the main door and demanded admittance. The door was opened, and, going through the rooms, the military and police found there were forty-five men on the premises.

Mr. Cooper—Were they the only people there?

Witness—Yes, with the exception of the caretaker.

The witness went on to say that he collected

DUBLIN CABMAN'S WINDFALL.

STRANGE BEQUESTS BY A KILDARE WOMAN.

HEIR DRIVES COUNSEL TO CHURCH.

The circumstances under which William Brown, who was stated to be a Dublin cabman, becomes entitled to houses and lands situate principally in Kilcullen, County Kildare, were told in the Chancery Division, in Dublin, yesterday, before the Master of the Rolls. An application was made on an originating summons for the determination of certain questions arising on the will of the late Mrs. Jane Isabella Lewis, formerly of Kilcullen. By her will, among other bequests, after the deaths of certain tenants for life, she left her general residuary estate and the proceeds of the sale of her real estates in Ireland to trustees upon trust to expend £80,000 in erecting in Dublin an hospital, to be called the Harvey Lewis Memorial Hospital, in memory of her husband, and to invest the remainder of the estate, and to apply the income towards the upkeep and maintenance of the hospital. Mrs. Lewis having died within three months after the date of the will, the charitable bequest of the real estate for the purposes of the proposed hospital failed, and it was stated that the real estate in Ireland now became the property of the heir-at-law, who is Mr. William Brown. It was stated that a sum of £18,000 is still, however, available for the purposes of the hospital.

Mr. Poole (instructed by Messrs. Barrington and Son), who appeared for the trustees, said that this same cabman, the heir-at-law, drove him to church a fortnight ago.

The Master of the Rolls (reading from the will)—"I bequeath to the Trustees of the Dublin Museum my ermine cloak, which was made for Queen Alexandra on her marriage, my sable cloak, which formed part of the loot from the Summer Palace at Pekin, and which had been given by the Tsar of Russia to the Emperor of China."

Mr. Poole, in reply to a question by the Master of the Rolls, said that, as far as he knew, Mr. William Brown was still driving his cab.

Mr. Macrory (instructed by Mr. F. V. Gordon, General Solicitor for Minors), who appeared for Mr. Brown, who, it was stated, was 63 years of age, asked the Master of the Rolls to make an order declaring his client entitled to the real estate.

Mr. Poole suggested that an order for a payment of £250 should be made in favour of Mr. Brown, and that the whole matter should stand over to the next sittings.

Mr. John O'Byrne (instructed by Mr. James O'Connor), who appeared for the Attorney-General, said that he apprehended that the real estate might be called upon to pay some portion of the debts and expenses.

The Master of the Rolls said that an hospital could not be built with the money now available, and probably a fitting appreciation of it would be towards building a wing to one of the existing hospitals. Notice of the proceedings should be served upon every hospital in Dublin. He allowed the matter to stand till next sittings, and directed that the trustees should pay out of the rents of the real estate in their hands £250 to Mr. William Brown.

BRITISH TRAWLER ASHORE.

SIX MEN DROWNED.

OTTAWA, Monday.

Yesterday evening a wireless message was received stating that the London-owned steamship Shakespeare was ashore on the Cape Breton coast, and was asking for assistance. The news was erroneous. The lighthouse keeper at Horchu Island says that the vessel is the Grimsby trawler Mikado. Rescuing tugs are on the scene of the wreck endeavouring to take off the men who are clinging to the spars.

A later telegram states it is now ascertained that six of the men of the Mikado have lost their lives.

THE DERRY STRIKE SITUATION.

CITY ABATTOIR TO BE CLOSED

The situation in Derry becomes more serious daily. Up to the present no approach towards a settlement of any of the strikes has been made, and the fear of the citizens is that the dispute may extend to other of the city's industries.

At a special meeting of the Corporation yesterday, at which the Mayor presided, it was decided to close the city abattoir.

When the Mayor stated that the meeting would be held in Committee,

Councillor Logue challenged his right to so decide without first getting a vote of the Council.

The Mayor said that his ruling was to hold the meeting in Committee.

Councillor Logue and Alderman Thompson asked to be informed under what rule this was done.

The Mayor said that he had given his ruling and it was final.

The Press representatives then withdrew.

It was learned at the conclusion of the meeting that it had been decided by a majority to close the city abattoir, and it was also decided to close the cemetery at seven o'clock, instead of at nine o'clock as heretofore.

The County Council refused to give electric current to pork-curing establishments whose employés are not on strike.

Councillor Logue afterwards stated that he entered a strong protest against the decision to close the abattoir, where the meat for the ctizens is slaughtered. He said that this was a grave step and very provocative.

all the men together, and told them that he was placing them under arrest for taking unlawful possession of the premises. He charged and cautioned them at the Bridewell that morning, and none of them said anything. At Liberty Hall he told them that he was arresting and detaining them pending instructions as to how they were to be proceeded against.

Mr. O'Byrne then asked for a remand until Wednesday.

Mr. A. E. Woods, K.C., who, with Mr. A. Lynn (instructed by Mr. Boyle) appeared for the prisoners, said that their answer to the charge was that they were in lawful occupation of the premises. He suggested that the men be released on bail on giving an undertaking not to go near Liberty Hall until the case was disposed of.

This undertaking was given, and the men were released, the case being adjourned until Wednesday.

A PROCESSION.

SPEECHES AT LIBERTY HALL.

When the prisoners and their friends left the Police Courts they formed up in processional order and marched along the Northern quays towards Liberty Hall. There they were addressed by Mr. Larkin. He declared that the spirit of rebellion was not dead in Ireland yet, and that a fire had been lighted which was spreading rapidly. He congratulated the men at the port in obtaining the release of their forty-five comrades by ceasing work in sympathy with them, and said that if the same had been done with regard to the political prisoners there would be no Irishmen in jail now.

Referring to the strike of gas workers, Mr. Larkin announced that if they had not been interfered with at Liberty Hall the strike might have been ended that morning on the men's own terms. He advised the men engaged at the port to return to work this morning, and asked them to come out again if there should be any case of victimisation.

In the evening a parade of strikers, headed by a fife and drum band, took place through the principal streets of the city. About 500 men took part, and the red flag was carried. On their return to Liberty Hall they were addressed by Mr. Larkin. For the most part his remarks were of a personal and political character. He again told the men who had "downed tools" for the day to return to work, and informed the meeting, amidst great cheering, that "a committee would be appointed to take over and run Liberty Hall."

No subscriptions, he said, were to be paid to the so-called Executive in York street, and they would refuse to work with any man who sent his contributions there.

IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT.

UNEMPLOYMENT.

PROPOSAL TO INSURE CHILDREN.

From Our Parliamentary Correspondent.
WESTMINSTER, Monday.

The money resolutions in connection with the Unemployment Insurance (No. 2) Bill, which proposes to increase the State contributions to the fund to one-third, and to render eligible for benefits children on attaining the age of 14, was again under consideration this evening. The resolution is based on an estimate of one million unemployed up to the end of the deficiency period, and though, as the Minister, Mr. Shaw, explained, he personally did not believe the figure would be so high it was well to be on the safe side. Having in mind the criticisms passed on the clause dealing with young persons when the matter was last discussed, the Minister pledged himself at a later stage to insert words which would safeguard educational interests.

Lord Eustace Percy confessed that he had the greatest doubts about the whole of the policy embodied in the resolution, but Dr. Macnamara, on the other hand, viewed the proposal to increase the State's contribution as eminently sound. After all, he observed, the Treasury had not done badly out of the existing scheme. Like other members, he had some misgivings as to the wisdom of insuring young persons at so early an age as 14, and another defect was the failure to include agricultural labourers in the scheme.

A somewhat drastic proposal came from Mr. Neil Maclean, who moved an amendment to provide that the full maintenance of unemployed persons should be at the same rate as if they were in employment, but the Chairman (Mr. Young) declined to entertain it, as imposing an additional charge. Mr. Maclean insisted that a similar amendment had been accepted by the Chairman in 1921, but Mr. Young declined to budge from the stand he had taken up, whereupon the hon. member threatened to place a motion on the paper calling attention to the discrepancy between the two rulings.

In the course of the further debate, so many objections were taken to the provision relating to children that Mr. Shaw, much against his inclination, was induced to withdraw that part of the resolution on the understanding that the whole position would be considered in Committee.

THE ARMY INQUIRY.

MR. O'HIGGINS AMONG THE WITNESSES.

By the end of another week the Committee appointed by the Government will have concluded its investigation of the affairs of the Army, or, more correctly, the alleged maladministration of the Department of Defence, and a report will be laid before the Executive Council within the next fortnight.

The result of the Committee's investigations will in all probability be communicated to the Dail at an early date, but whether the actual report of the Committee will be laid before the Dail is entirely a matter for the Executive Council.

Many sittings have been held by the Committee since it was appointed about two months ago, and the printed evidence, it is stated, would make a fair sized volume.

It is more or less common knowledge that the principal witnesses were Mr. Mulcahy, ex-Minister of Defence; Mr. Kevin O'Higgins, Minister of Home Affairs, and Colonel O'Connell. Remarkable evidence, it is understood, was tendered by Mr. O'Higgins, who was examined at some length. His testimony related mainly to the existence of secret societies within the Army.

Mr. Mulcahy was again before the Committee last Friday and Saturday. His examination extended over several hours on Saturday. Entering the witness-box about 11 a.m. he remained there until 2 p.m., when he was obliged to leave for Limerick to address meetings in support of the Ministerial candidate. Important evidence was also given by Colonel O'Connell.

OBITUARY.

SIR SAMUEL DILL.

We regret to announce the death, which occurred yesterday morning, at his residence, Mountpelier, Malone road, Belfast, of Sir Samuel Dill, the eminent teacher, writer and administrator. Professor Dill, who was in his eighty-second year, was Professor of Greek in Queen's College, afterwards Queen's University, Belfast, when he resigned in the year 1923, to the great regret of all connected with the institution.

The son of the Rev. S. M. Dill, he was born at Hillsborough, Co. Down, and was educated at the old Queen's College, and Lincoln College, Oxford, where he had a very brilliant career. He became Lecturer in Lincoln College in 1869, and subsequently Fellow, Dean and Tutor at Corpus Christi College.

In the year 1879 he was appointed Headmaster of Manchester Grammar School, and between 1880 and 1889 he was Governor of Owen's College, Manchester, and of Victoria University. In 1890 he returned to Belfast, having secured the Professorship of Greek in Queen's College. In addition to his exacting professional duties he found time to undertake many other responsible positions. He acted on the Commission appointed to bring into effect the Statutes in connection with the Queen's University; he served on the Intermediate Board for Ireland, and he was Chairman of the Viceregal Committee on Irish Primary Education in 1913. He was also a Pro-Chancellor of Queen's University and closely identified with its development.

In 1909 the honour of Knighthood was conferred upon him, and when he retired from the University last year the students presented him with an address and a silver souvenir.

Sir Samuel Dill was the author of several standard works, one of which, "Roman Society in the Last Century of the Western Empire," is now in the third edition. Another, "Roman Society from Nero to Marcus Aurelius," is in its second edition.

SIR FREDERICK WILSON.

Sir Frederick Wilson, proprietor of the East Anglian Daily Times, Ipswich, died yesterday at Scarning, Norfolk, after a prolonged illness, aged eighty. Indentured to journalism, he founded the East Anglian Daily Times in 1874. He was President of the Newspaper Society in 1894, and of the Institute of Journalists in 1897. From 1895 to 1906 he was Liberal member for Mid-Norfolk.

As a young man editing the Chester Observer, he was called up as a volunteer to defend Chester Castle against the Fenians, and in later years had the strange experience of sitting as a colleague in the Commons with one of the attacking party.

MR. G. H. MOORE-BROWNE.

The death occurred, at his residence, Tubber-Patrick, Portstewart, on Sunday morning, of Mr. George H. Moore-Browne, one of the best-known magistrates in the County Derry. For many years he was Chairman of the Coleraine Bench of Magistrates. Mr. Moore-Browne was an enthusiastic yachtsman and owned a boat, the Lafome, which won various events at regattas on the Clyde and other waters in Britain. He was for a time captain and commodore of the Bann Rowing Club and a patron of the Portstewart Golf Club. In 1917 he married Miss Pleasance Bruce, the adopted daughter of Lord Charles F. Brudenell-Bruce, of Gloucester Gate, Regent's Park, London, who, with a son and a daughter, survives him.

MR. A. STRINGER.

Mr. Arthur Stringer, the well-known motor proprietor, of the Station Cab Company, Belfast, died yesterday morning at his residence, Dunedin, Antrim road, in that city. Mr. Stringer was attending to his business when he collapsed. When medical aid was summoned he was found to be dead. Mr. Stringer's death will be sincerely regretted by all who knew him. In early life he practised as a veterinary surgeon in Belfast. Afterwards he established the Station Cab Company, and being a man of sound business instincts, he soon acquired a large clientèle. He was a member of the Masonic Order.

Mr. Alexander Dunlop Lindsay, Professor of Moral Philosophy in the University of Glasgow, was yesterday elected Master of Balliol, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Arthur Lionel Smith. Professor Lindsay took his M.A. degree at Balliol, Oxford, in 1906.

GERMAN CABINET RESIGNS.

HERR MARX TO CARRY ON GOVERNMENT.

VON TIRPITZ'S POSITION

EXTREMISTS WANT JEWS EXPELLED.

IRISH TIMES FOREIGN SERVICE.
From Our Own Correspondent.
BERLIN, Monday, Midnight.

The Government resigned to-night at eleven o'clock. The President has asked the Chancellor to continue in office until a new Government is formed. President Ebert afterwards received all the party leaders.

10.15 p.m.

The negotiations between the German Nationals and the Middle Parties, on the subject of the formation of a Coalition Government, ended in failure this evening, and the resignation of the Marx Government is expected at any moment. It will only be a formal resignation, however, for it is certain that President Ebert will request Herr Marx, the Chancellor, to reform a Ministry, and that the latter will do so, making only a few changes.

The German Nationalists, at their party meeting to-day, again insisted on raising a personal question before laying down their policy, and unexpectedly put forward Admiral von Tirpitz as their candidate for the Chancellorship in a bourgeois Government, declaring they would afterwards be prepared to discuss the Government internal and foreign policy. This decision was conveyed to the leaders of the middle parties, who promptly called upon President Ebert.

The extreme Nationalists, who number 32 in the new Reichstag, held a party meeting also to-day, and formulated a programme of a most amazing character. Their demands include—(1) The immediate election of a new President of the Republic; (2) the repeal of the law for the protection of the Republic; (3) amnesty for all participators in the Munich and Kustrin revolts; (4) the trial on a charge of treason of all those who took part in the revolution of November, 1918, and who collaborated with the Soviet Governemnt; (5) the expulsion of all Jews who have entered Germany since 1914, with partial confiscation of their property, and the abolition of their right to change their Jewish names (6) the placing of all members of the Jewish race under special legislation. General Ludendorff was not present at the meeting. (Reuter.)

MR. THOMAS ILL.

ENGAGEMENTS FOR THIS WEEK CANCELLED.

Mr. J. H. Thomas, the British Colonial Secretary, is suffering from pleurisy. For some days Mr. Thomas has been suffering from a slight cold, and the attack of pleurisy seized him yesterday morning as he was about to leave for Downing street. A specialist was called into consultation with Mr. Thomas's physician, and the Colonial Secretary's engagements for the week have been cancelled.

Mrs. Thomas is also indisposed.

THE LANE PICTURES.

NO REQUEST MADE TO THE TATE GALLERY.

From Our Own Correspondent.
LONDON, Monday.

The Tate Gallery has not yet received any communication in connection with the request by the Art Advisory Committee of the Dublin Municipal Gallery of Modern Art that the Corporation should ask the British Government to arrange for the immediate return of the thirty-nine Lane bequest pictures to Dublin.

At present these pictures occupy the greater part of the walls of Gallery No. 8 at the Tate Gallery.

DUBLIN COMPENSATION CLAIMS.

BIG AWARD TO BELFAST DISTILLERS.

The Recorder of Dublin yesterday awarded £33,843 compensation to Messrs. Dunville and Co., Ltd., Belfast, for the destruction of 168,430 gallons of whiskey by armed men at the Custom House, Dublin, on the 6th April, 1922.

During the hearing of the evidence as to value, the Recorder said that it was suggested that he should allow 7s. 6d. per gallon more for this whiskey than for Jameson's, but he would not do anything of the kind. He also said that he thought fourpence per gallon "a tall order" for keeping casks in bond in order. In his view those casks improved as well as the whiskey, and did not depreciate with age.

Other awards were:—

Messrs. Laird and Co., Ltd., chemists, Sackville street, £1,136 for damage to premises and stock during the attack on the Gresham Hotel.

Mr. J. J. Weafer, tobacconist and confectioner, 22 Upper Ormond, quay, £50 for damage to premises during the bombardment of the Four Courts.

The proprietors of the Carlton Cinema, Sackville street, £45 for damage done during the bombardment of the Gresham Hotel.

The Dublin County Council, £60 for malicious destruction to a sleeping van which was thrown over a bridge at Boher-na-Breena on January 30th, 1923.

Mr. John C. Chaloner, Myrtle Lodge, Torquay road, Foxrock, Co. Dublin, £60 for loss and damage to property.

From the evidence in Mr. Chaloner's case it appeared that at 12.30 a.m. on September 22, 1922, five men, who stated they were from Oriel House, having obtained admittance to the applicant's residence, locked Mr. and Mrs. Chaloner in a room and then ransacked the house. Later they took Mrs. Chaloner to another part of the house and, under threats of assaulting her, compelled her to give up all the money in her possession.

The Recorder said that it was a shocking case.

AN IRISH COMPOSER.

DEATH OF MR. VICTOR HERBERT.

NEW YORK, Monday.

The death is announced of Mr. Victor Herbert, the well-known conductor and composer.—(Reuter.)

He was born in Dublin on February 1st, 1859, and was the son of Edward and Fanny (Lover) Herbert, and grandson of Samuel Lover, the well-known Irish novelist. At the age of seven he began his musical education in Germany, studying under leading masters. His first position of prominence was that of principal violincello player in the Court Orchestra, Stuttgart. He was heard in concerts throughout Europe before going to America as solo violincellist in the Metropolitan Orchestra, New York, in 1886. Later he was connected with Theodore Thomas's, Seidl's, and other orchestral organisations as soloist and conductor. He was bandmaster of the 22nd Regiment band, New York, since 1894; conductor of Pittsburg, Pa. Orchestra from 1898 to 1904, and of Victor Herbert's New York Orchestra since 1904. Mr. Herbert's compositions included "The Captive" (oratorio written for and performed at Worcester, Mass., Festival); "Prince Ananias"; "The Wizard of the Nile"; "The Serenade"; "Cyrano de Bergerac"; "The Ameer"; "The Viceroy"; "The Idol's Eye"; "The Fortune Teller"; "The Singing Girl"; "Babette"; "Babes in Toyland," and "It Happened in Nordland" (all comic operas); also several compensations for orchestra, songs, and a concert for violoncello and orchestra. He was a member of the National Institute of Arts and Letters.

Mr. Herbert married, on August 14, 1886, Therese Forester, prima donna, and resided at 321 W. 108th street, New York.

INDIAN CIVIL SERVICE.

FREE PASSAGES HOME AND BETTER PENSIONS.

From Our Own Correspondent.
LONDON, Monday.

A big step forward in the direction of the Indianisation of the superior Civil Services in India is recommended in the report of the Royal Commission published to-day. It is urged that the following percentage proportions should be aimed at:—

	Indian.	European.
Indian Civil Service	50	50
Indian Police Service	50	50
Indian Forest Service	75	25
Indian Service of Engineers	60	40
Central Services	25	75

In the superior telegraph and wireless branch and the State railway engineers it is recommended that 25 per cent. of recruitment should be from England and the remainder from India by open competition.

Part 2 of the report deals with service conditions. It is one of the complaints of the services that so little has been done to give effect to the Montagu-Chelmsford report six years ago, when it was stated that the real pay should be restored to the level which proved attractive 20 years ago.

The Commission state—"We were informed that a great many officers, particularly in the early years of married life, are at present in debt to an extent which was unknown 20 years ago, and that this is in no sense due to extravagance. Insurance policies are pledged as security for advances, and in many cases their surrender value taken."

A comparison is drawn between the treatment of Government servants and the staff of commercial houses in India. The latter are better off as regards pay, pension, and free passages for themselves and their families. The Commission recommends an improvement in the overseas pay in certain years, but has not altered the basic rates.

The most welcome suggestion is that dealing with free passages. Hitherto the Government has not provided passages for officers or their families travelling to Europe on leave. The inadequacy of the existing rates of pay and the rise in shipping rates prevent many officers taking their leave to the detriment of their health.

The following return passages for officer and wife already in the Service is suggested:—Less than seven years' service, 4; over seven and less than fourteen, 3; over fourteen and less than twenty-one, 2; twenty-one years and over, 1. With a single passage for each child.

Those not included in these provisions would receive four return passages, and when married a wife should be entitled to as many return passages as may be to her husband's credit.

Proposals for the increase of pensions made. It is suggested that the recommendations should take effect from the beginning of the financial year 1924-25.

"DOWN WITH TAXES."

COLLECTOR'S OFFICES.

WOMEN IN SICILY BURN RATE

IRISH TIMES FOREIGN SERVICE.
From Our Own Correspondent.
PALERMO, Monday.

The inhabitants of Avola, near Syracuse, have for some time past been protesting violently against heavy municipal taxation, but without result.

So strong is local feeling, however, that yesterday a large crowd, composed almost entirely of women, invaded the rate collector's offices, and, after dragging out the employés, set fire to the building and several sentry boxes. They afterwards paraded the town crying, "We are masters of Avola. Down with the excise duties."

Several guards, who used rough language to the women, were in danger of being lynched, but were rescued by carabineers.

To-day the Mayor summoned a meeting of the Municipal Council, when it was decided to abolish all duties, and to release the women who were arrested. Afterwards there was another big demonstration, and a procession through the town, headed by bands and banners, the women shouting, "We have won a great victory. Long live free trade."

ITALIAN SOVEREIGNS IN LONDON.

STATE BANQUET AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

The State banquet given by the King and Queen at Buckingham Palace last night in honour of the King and Queen of Italy was a brilliant function, at which 150 guests were present, in addition to members of the two Royal Families.

The floral decorations were red roses, interspersed with green leaves, and, with the white tablecloth, they formed the Italian colours.

The King, who wore the uniform of an Admiral of the Fleet, proposed the health of the King and Queen of Italy.

He referred to the visit, seventy years ago, of Their Majesties' illustrious grandfather, and to the lasting and unbroken bond of friendship between the two countries.

"We in these islands," he added, "are ever mindful of the many ties uniting us to your country. The influence of Italian genius is apparent in all our arts, in architecture, painting and music, while upon literature that influence was exerted at its earliest and most impressionable age.

"On this occasion the Queen and I are especially reminded of the magnificent and friendly welcome which we received last year from Your Majesties and the Italian people. Our visit to the Eternal City has left in our hearts the happiest memories, when we both were able, and the Queen for the first time, to enjoy in its reality what is the dream of all lovers of history, art, and the beautiful in this and every country of the world."

The King of Italy, in reply, said:—"The unbroken bonds of friendship and sympathy which have always united our two nations are present to our minds, and I am expressing the feelings of my country, as well as of my Government, in sharing your Majesty's wish that, as in the past, also in the future these traditional bonds may be strengthened in the reciprocal interest of our countries, and in order to further the general task of pacification, the economic interests, the intellectual bonds that unite us, the affinity of our ideals and propensities in social as well as in political fields, our mutual efforts for the triumph of the principles of nationality and independence, and, above all, the sacrifices jointly endured during the recent great conflagration, make me feel assured that this collaboration, as sincere as it has proved fruitful, will ever continue."

PROPOSED NEW COUNTY DUBLIN BOROUGH.

ACTION OF BLACKROCK COUNCIL.

The proposal to form a new borough, which will include the urban districts of Kingstown, Blackrock, and Dalkey, was discussed last night at a special meeting of the Blackrock Council, at which Mr. John J. M'Cabe, Chairman, presided.

The resolution in favour of the project was moved by Mr. Downey, seconded by Mr. S. P. Byrne.

Mr. J. O'Keeffe proposed an amendment, that a special committee of the whole house be appointed to consider the actual position in which Blackrock would stand immediately on the passage of the bill and five years later. He said that he considered that they should see exactly how they stood before they rushed into this thing. There should be an actual investigation to see how the bill would work out in practice before it was endorsed.

The amendment was seconded by the Chairman.

Lady Dockrell said that she thought that they could not afford to standstill. While they would be putting off the matter somebody might come along and swallow them up.

The Chairman said that from the beginning he had been opposed to the formation of this borough. The whole thing would lead to new jobs and increase of salaries.

The amendment was put to the meeting and declared lost. The resolution was then submitted and approved by 13 votes to four.

It was decided to place the proposal before the ratepayers of the district at a special meeting to be summoned by the Chairman.

TO-DAY'S LONDON PAPERS.

INDIAN SERVICES.

ROYAL COMMISSION'S REPORT.

The Times, in a leading article upon the report of the Royal Commission on the Indian Civil Services, which it describes as the most important State paper dealing with India which has been produced since the Act of 1919, which embodied the reform scheme, observes:—In framing their recommendations the Commissioners have endeavoured to strike a balance between the claims of the Indian Services, and more particularly of their European members, for more generous financial treatment and greater security of tenure, and, on the other hand, the general and insistent demand of the literate classes for the speedier Indianisation of the Administration. The Services, indeed, have abundantly made good their claim to financial relief. The facts set forth by the report speak for themselves. They explain only too well how the coincident pressure of official anxiety and of financial embarrassment has caused a loss of heart among British officials, and in some cases what Mr. Petrie describes in his separate minute as a loss in "some of their faith in their own and their country's mission." Among the financial reforms proposed by the Commissioners in the case of officials of non-Asiatic domicile are the increase of overseas pay during the periods when that increase is normally most needed, the grant of free return passages, and the permission to remit overseas pay or to draw in London in sterling at privileged rates. These proposals are especially designed to benefit the British official, but, in advocating the increase of the pensions of the "uncovenanted" services, and the granting of extraordinary pensions in the case of officials whose duties or position have exposed them to violent death or injury, the Commissioners have shown equal solicitude for his Indian colleagues.

The Commissioners may prove to be justified in their support of provincialisation, but they seem to us to have laid rather too much stress, if not on the interdependence, at least on the urgency, of all their recommendations. Important though these matters are, neither the British nor the Indian Governments can be expected to swallow great changes of system whole without questions or examination. There happens to be in England at this moment a number of men with very recent experience, and by no means identical views of administration in the provinces. Both the Government and the Unionist Opposition, who share the responsibility for the appointment of the Commission, and for action on its report, will do well to take these experts into their counsel on these matters of organisation before coming to any final decision. They are bound also to await the best, which is not necessarily the first nor the most vocal opinion from India itself. But it is clear already that they cannot, without grave risks, reject the main conclusions which have been reached, or upset the broad balance of conflicting interests which underlies them.

LABOUR MINISTER'S SALARY.

TEST DIVISION ON THURSDAY.

The Government has definitely decided that it must regard the debate on the Labour Minister's salary next Thursday as a question of confidence. There was a conference of Ministers yesterday morning, when the question was under consideration, and the decision was then arrived at that the carrying of Sir William Joynson Hicks's amendment to reduce the vote by £100 could not be regarded as a question of minor importance. If by any chance therefore, the Government were to be defeated, the only question remaining would be whether the Prime Minister would resign or ask the King to dissolve Parliament. The general impression in Labour circles is that Mr. Macdonald would select the latter course and elect to go to the country on the Government's record rather than hand over the reins of office to either of the older parties.

The prospects of a Government defeat, however, are small in view of the attitude adopted by the Liberals in last Thursday's debate. On that occasion, although Dr. Macnamara and Mr. Masterman denounced the record of the Government in the matter of unemployment, the bulk of the Liberals present voted with the Government to prevent the closure being applied, in order that a direct vote on Mr. Shaw's salary might be taken. In view of the gravity of the issue there is almost certain to be a Liberal Party meeting before the debate is resumed, though no arrangements for one have yet been made.

DEATH RAY TEST.

INVENTOR'S ULTIMATUM TO BRITISH GOVERNMENT.

From Our Own Correspondent.
LONDON, Monday.

The Air Ministry stated to-night that certain demonstrations of the Death Ray were given to-day by Mr. Grindell Matthews to representatives of the Admiralty, the War Office, and the Air Ministry, in the laboratory of the inventor. As a result proposals for a simple, but more conclusive, test have been made to the inventor.

Major H. E. Wimperis, who is acting as Director of Scientific Research to the Air Ministry, was present on behalf of that arm of the Service, and Mr. F. E. Smith watched the demonstration for the Admiralty. The test lasted an hour and a half.

Captain Edwards, who is associated with Mr. Grindell Matthews, said that the test was exactly the same as that which has been demonstrated to the Press and to the French authorities.

"We delivered," he added, "what is tantamount to an ultimatum, to the effect that we must have a decision by to-morrow. If no satisfactory reply is received by then Mr. Grindell Matthews will fly to Paris on Wednesday, where a contract is awaiting his signature. Whether the invention will go to France or Great Britain depends solely on a quick and satisfactory reply from the British Government."

THE LAND PURCHASE ACT.

BILL TO BE INTRODUCED BY MR. BLYTHE.

Mr. Graham, replying to Lieutenant-Colonel Howard Bury, in the House of Commons yesterday, said that he was not aware that the 1923 Land Purchase Act in Ireland was being held up owing to the bill guaranteeing the principal and interest not having been brought forward. The Secretary for the Colonies had not himself had any conversation with Mr. Blythe on the subject, but he (Mr. Graham) had recently discussed the matter with Mr. Blythe, and it was hoped that the bill would be ready for introduction shortly.

FINNISH TREATY

WITH GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND RATIFIED.

HELSINGFORS, Monday.

Parliament to-day ratified the Treaty of Commerce and Navigation, concluded between Great Britain and Ireland and Finland.—(Reuter.)

THE DAIL TO-DAY.

To-day the Dail enters upon the first of the exceptionally busy weeks which are to intervene before the summer holidays. When the House rises in July at least forty new measures will have been introduced during the session, and a fair share of them will have had two or three "readings." Several of the new bills, the titles of which have already been given in the Irish Times, will be put before the House this week.

It is proposed that the hour of adjournment during the next month will be extended from 8.30 to 10 p.m. or 10.30 p.m., so that the Chamber will have extra time for discussion.

The principal business on to-day's Order Paper is the resumed consideration of amendments to the Railways Bill.

WHERE THE FIRST MAN LIVED.

EXPLORER'S THEORY.

£50,000 EXPEDITION TO MONGOLIAN DESERT.

IRISH TIMES FOREIGN SERVICE.
From Our Own Correspondent.
NEW YORK, Monday.

Mr. Roy Chapman Andrews, the explorer, who recently discovered 25 dinosaur eggs and other prehistoric fossils in the Great Gobi Desert of Mongolia, has left New York on another expedition to this practically unknown region.

On this occasion the object of the explorers will be to discover fossilised skeletons of prehistoric man. Mr. Andrews says that he has already established the fact that Central Asia was the original home of the vertebrates, and the cradle of the human race, and he is confident of bringing back to America the fossil remains of man's remote predecessors.

The expedition will penetrate right to the heart of the Gobi Desert. About £50,000 has been subscribed towards the cost.

TAILTEANN GAMES.

MR. WALSH'S APPEAL TO BELFAST MEN.

A meeting for the purpose of forming a Council for Ulster in connection with the Tailteann Games was held in Belfast yesterday evening, when an interesting statement was made by Mr. J. J. Walsh, Director of the Games. Representatives of the principal athletic and sporting organisations attended.

Mr. Walsh, who had a cordial reception, thanked those present for their kindness in coming that night. He said that Mr. M'Lardy, the Secretary, was somewhat disappointed that there was not a larger attendance, but crowds did not count in a case of that kind, and they were more concerned with the departments of sport represented. They had not perhaps paid quite as much attention to organisation in Belfast as had been done in other centres. It was rather late in the day when they got going, but he believed that they would be able to make up for the late start. He was satisfied from the information that he had received that Belfast would be represented in almost every department.

It should be remembered that the Tailteann Games was merely a combination of existing athletic organisations, and he explained that they were already in touch with the Central Committees of these organisations, and had a very encouraging response. The one big section connected with the Games which had no semblance of organisation outside Belfast was music, which was a large item in their programme, occupying something like fifteen pages of the programme. He was satisfied that they were likely to get a very big entry in music, and probably a larger contingent from Belfast in the music section than from any other city. Next to music, as a semi-organised body, came Arts. He did not know how they stood in regard to organisation in Arts in Belfast, but in the South of Ireland that section was not organised at all beyond some semblance of organisation in Dublin. They were hoping that Arts would be pretty strongly represented, and he hoped before leaving Belfast to get into touch with representatives of Arts. If they took other sections of the programme they found that it was covered almost entirely by the existing national organisations. Billiards and boxing were being organised upon national lines. For some unexplained reason the Amateur Boxing Association had been crumbling, but it was taking shape rapidly again. Golf and gymnastics were well organised, but handball had no organisation, and various meetings were held with the object of rectifying this. There was a certain amount of material available in Belfast. Rowing and tennis were thoroughly well organised institutions; tug-o'-war was not organised, but he hoped to see some improvement in this respect. Since he came to Belfast he found that there was an indication that there was a general desire to co-operate on behalf of the Games.

He believed that he was speaking for the real friends of the country when he said that nothing gave their people North or South greater heart than to know that there was at least one common ground on which they could meet and work for the development of the civilisation of their common land. (Applause.)

Subsequently Mr. Walsh intimated that they were looking forward to the Ulster police team, which competed in the tug-of-war event in London, coming to Dublin, and he understood that arrangements were being made for their attendance.

After discussing the details it was decided to form a Council composed of two representatives from each organisation to further the interests of the Games.

On the motion of Mr. McCann, seconded by Mr. Jefferson, a cordial vote of thanks was passed to Mr. Walsh for his visit.

Mr. Walsh, in reply, said that he was glad of the opportunity of renewing his friendship with the sportsmen of Belfast. He never met finer sportsmen anywhere, and he did not say that as a hackneyed phrase, for he had said it on many occasions before. The sporting fraternity in Belfast was recognised as of a high order.

U.S. IMMIGRATION BILL.

STATEMENT BY PRESIDENT COOLIDGE.

WASHINGTON, Monday.

President Coolidge's statement, issued after signing the new Immigration Bill, read as follows:—

"In signing the bill, I heartily approve of the main features, but regret the impossibility of severing from it the exclusion provision, which, in the light of the existing law, affects especially the Japanese. I gladly recognise the enactment that the provision does not imply any change in our sentiment of admiration and cordial friendship for the Japanese people, a sentiment which has had, and will continue to have, abundant manifestation. The bill rather expresses the determination of Congress to exercise its prerogative of defining by legislation the control of immigration, instead of leaving it to international arrangements.

"The bill makes many exceptions, but it would have been much better, and, in my judgment, more effective if we had continued to invite that co-operation which Japan was ready to give, and thus to have avoided ready to give, and thus to have avoided ground for misapprehension by an unnecessary statutory enactment.

"If the exclusion provision stood alone I should disapprove without hesitation, but the bill is a comprehensive measure dealing with the whole subject of immigration."—(Reuter.)

GAS WORKERS' STRIKE.

The Strike Committee of the gas workers sat yesterday as usual, but had nothing to report. In the evening, however, Mr. Larkin, in the course of a speech, said that "even yet there was a possibility that the gas strike would be settled to-morrow."

DUBLIN THEATRES.

"THE CAT AND THE CANARY."

The characteristic Grand Guignol plays were written by artists in horror. "The Cat and the Canary," which recalls the Grand Guignol, may rather be said to have been put together by a skilled dispenser of stage thrills, working with his tongue in his cheek. For the sake of the pleasure of future audiences, the producers ask that the manner of the play's end shall not be revealed, but really there is very little point in that. Long before the end the audience is invited to conclude that the thing is more or less burlesque. Indeed, if occasions for laughter were not given frequently, the play would have to be condemned as too brutal a harrowing of any audience. As an experiment in horror, the play is not really on the same plane as the best of the Grand Guignol pieces. Whereas they set forth ideas of horror, "The Cat and the Canary" is rather a collection of well-tried stage tricks in hair-raising. They are too artificial to cause disturbance of anybody's night's rest, but they fool the audience into an exciting series of temporary "creeps." One should go to see the play in the spirit in which youngsters at a country fair pay their pennies to get an electric shock, being assured that they will merely tingle, not succumb. The spirit of the piece is not in the story, but in the fixed purpose of the author to work into the piece in crowded succession every known stage trick for making an audience's flesh creep. There are darkened rooms, sliding panels, people who shuffle and creep, people who rave, doors that shut when they have been carefully left open, mysterious knockings in a lonely country house, a murder and a disappearance of the corpse, shrieks and swoons of the woman upon whom all the horrors are concentrated.

Miss Eva Rowland, as Annabella West—the "Canary," no doubt—has most scope for acting that is clever in its determined conventionality of melodramatic vigour, and the rest of the cast follow out the same idea with sufficient ability.

The play is so extraordinary that it will probably replace politics and gas strike discomforts as matter for Dublin conversations this week.

THEATRE ROYAL.

After an absence from Dublin of six-and-twenty years, Mr. Hengler and his famous circus have returned to delight the citizens, young and old, and enjoy that support and appreciation which was the city's tribute to their good work as entertainers. They give a twice nightly display at the Theatre Royal, and opened last night to well-filled houses. They started with a heavy handicap. Because of the "lightning" strike at the port the horses and elaborate equipment could not be landed from the steamer until four in the afternoon. They had less than three hours to fit up the "show," and a rehearsal, even of the band, was impossible. Still the performance went without a hitch to become an instantaneous success.

QUEEN'S THEATRE.

Patrons of the Queen's Theatre have little, if any, reason to be dissatisfied with the theatrical fare provided by the management this week. "Topical Times," a musical extravaganza, in twelve parts, is the offering Last night it proved highly acceptable to two well-filled houses. There are several good singers in the cast, plenty of droll topical patter, and—Billy Percy. One of the best things in the performance is the musical breach of promise case, in which judge, counsel, and prisoner delivered themselves in the best operatic style. Mr. John Kurridge is the possessor of a pleasing tenor voice, and his singing of "Let me like a soldier fall" and other songs from opera won him much applause. Miss Ida Taylor and Miss Rhoda Paul were equally good in vocal numbers, while Mr. Billy Percy kept the house in the best of good humour throughout the performance. All the other members of the company acquitted themselves creditably.

OLYMPIA THEATRE.

"Snacks, in Various Assortments," described as "a peculiar revusical concoction," was presented by Beresford and Pearce, Ltd., in the Olympia Theatre last night. There are twenty-three "snacks" in the revue, which provides good music and dancing, as well as a generous spice of humour. Sid Dooley, as the comedian, was very funny, and was early a favourite with the audiences. Oliver Hardwick was applauded for his vocal contributions. He gave a fine rendering of "Romany Rose." The Three O'Leary Girls also sang remarkably well, and the Alexandra Opera Singers formed another combination that greatly pleased their hearers. The choruses were ably sung, and the piece was very well received.

TIVOLI THEATRE.

The Tivoli Theatre's programme for this week is of a high standard. Particularly pleasing are the artistic and classical poses of the "Three Equals," who give also a fine exhibition of physical culture. Nina and Nora present an acceptable act, described as a "speciality"; and Mike Whelan, a Dublin artist, wheels himself into the limelight on a "trick" cycle. Launcelot Quinn is an able singer, and has a good selection of songs, as also has Jimmy Green, who, however, favours "rag times," and prefers to burlesque. A ventriloquial act by "Romio" is highly amusing, and a revue item by Hylda Baker very entertaining.

CHILDREN ARTISTES.

ENTERTAINMENT AT RATHMINES TOWN HALL.

A very attractive children's entertainment was given in the Rathmines Town Hall last evening, to help the funds of the "Felix Fair." Considering the excellence of the programme, and the very deserving object in view, it was regrettable to see so many vacant seats. "The Maid of the Village," a musical comedy revue, was played very successfully by members of St. Nicholas' Association, a Society comprised of children who are organised and trained by Mr. J. J. Fitbgerald. The production was under the personal supervision of Mr. Fitzgerald and Miss B. Quirke.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH.

PEDESTRIAN KILLED BY MOTOR CAR.

A verdict of accidental death was returned at the inquest in Dublin yesterday on Martin Kelly, 17, of Vartry House, Roundwood, Co. Wicklow, who died at St. Vincent's Hospital on Saturday last following injuries sustained through being knocked down by a motor car on Friday night. The accident occurred on the Stillorgan road, near Booterstown avenue, Co. Dublin.

Dr. Ahearne, of the National Army Medical Service, stated that at 10.45 p.m. on Friday he was travelling in his motor car, driven by Christopher Patterson, along Stillorgan road, towards Dublin. Just before the accident he noticed a motor car approaching. His driver sounded the horn. After passing the other car he felt a jolt, and his car was pulled up immediately. On jumping out he found a man lying on the road at the back, and to the left of the car. He took him in his car to St. Vincent's Hospital.

The witness further stated that the head lights on both cars were bright From the position in which he found the deceased lying on the road he was satisfied that he had come from the bank on the left side of the road, on which side there was no footpath.

Mr. E. H. Burne, who appeared for the driver of the car which struck the deceased, suggested that the jury should add to their verdict a rider to the effect that it was unsafe and unwise for pedestrians to use the roadway at night where a pathway was available.

LAW COURTS.

SEQUEL TO COLLISION.

NEW TRIAL ORDERED.

In the Court of Appeal, the Lord Chief Justice, Lord Justice Ronan, and Mr. Justice Dodd delivered judgment in favour of the plaintiff, by a majority, in the case of Fox v. Fagan, an action brought by Patrick Fox, managing law clerk, of Ivy Lodge, Goose Green, against James J. Fagan, wine and spirit merchant, of 12 Merrion road, Ballsbridge, County Dublin, for personal and other injuries sustained by the plaintiff by reason of the alleged negligence of the defendant, his servants or agents, in the driving and management of a motor car in North Frederick street, Dublin, on March 22, 1923, when a collision occurred between the bicycle which the plaintiff was riding, on his way home, and the motor car of the defendant, who was proceeding in the same direction.

The defence was a denial of the alleged negligence and injuries alleged to have been sustained, and a plea that the injuries and damage complained of were caused by the sole negligence of the plaintiff, who, as alleged, was guilty of contributory negligence.

At the trial before Mr. Justice Pim and a jury, the jury found that the accident was caused by the joint negligence of both the defendant and plaintiff, and returned a verdict for the defendant. The plaintiff applied to have the verdict set aside and entered for him, or for an order directing a new trial.

The Lord Chief Justice and Lord Justice Ronan (Mr. Justice Dodd dissenting) were of opinion that there should be a new trial of the action, and an order directing a new trial was made accordingly, the costs of the previous action to abide by the result of the new trial.

Mr. Denning, K.C., Mr. Lardner, K.C., and Mr. H. Hamilton (instructed by Mr. Cresswell) appeared for the plaintiff; and Serjeant Hanna and Mr. J. O'Byrne (instructed by Messrs. James O'Connor and Co.) for the defendant.

SAMUEL HOLMES, LTD.

LIQUIDATOR'S APPLICATION.

In the Chancery Division, before the Master of the Rolls, in the matter of Samuel Holmes, Ltd., a Dublin char-à-banc company, in liquidation,

Mr. Dickie, K.C. (instructed by Mr. S. G. Rutherford), applied for directions on behalf of the official liquidator on a number of matters, the first matter being that the provisional liquidator should bring in and pass his final account, and that on payment of any balance due to him his bond should be vacated.

The Master of the Rolls directed that that should be done. He refused Mr. Samuel Holmes and Mrs. Margaret Holmes their costs of appearing on that petition and appointment of official liquidator. He declared the official liquidator entitled to his general costs when taxed; disallowed the costs of summons dated 27th April, 1922, issued to determine priority; allowed the official liquidator £105 as remuneration and allowed the provisional liquidator (Mr. J. A. Purtill) £125 for his remuneration; declared the petitioners, the Munster and Leinster Bank, entitled to their costs; directed that the claim sheet lodged be not ruled upon, as no assets would be available for the ordinary unsecured creditors; allowed £32 to Frank J. Flynn, secretary, in respect of salary; transferred to the Munster and Leinster Bank, Ltd., the outstanding assets of £420, claim in respect of damage to a char-à-banc, dealt with by Compensation (Ireland) Committee; and he also transferred £600 to the bank allowed by the Recorder as compensation for loss of a char-à-banc.

His Lordship allowed all parties their costs out of the estate.

Mr. H. Wilson, K.C. (instructed by Messrs. Maxwell, Weldon and Co.), appeared for the Munster and Leinster Bank; Mr. W. G. Shannon for the provisional liquidator, and Messrs. Matheson, Ormsby and Prentice, solicitors, for the Official Assignee in Bankruptcy.

LIMERICK CHILD'S INJURY.

£400 FOR LOSS OF AN ARM.

In the King's Bench Division, before the Lord Chief Justice, Mr. Phelps (instructed by Messrs. Fitt and Co., Limerick) applied on behalf of the defendants in the action of Christopher Hehir, an infant, by his father, Thomas Hehir, against James Bannatyne and Sons, Ltd., to have a consent to settlement made a rule of Court. Counsel said that the action was brought on behalf of this child, who lived in Limerick, for damages sustained by being run over by the defendants' motor lorry. The child lost an arm, or part of an arm. It had now been agreed to settle the action on the lodgment by the defendants of £400 for the benefit of the plaintiff.

Mr. Noyk (Messrs. Noyk and O'Reilly), solicitor, agreed to the consent on behalf of the plaintiff.

The Lord Chief Justice accepted the consent. He directed that the money be brought into Court, to be invested in National Loan, the interest to be paid to the father of the child, he undertaking to expend the sum for the maintenance of the boy.

SEATON ASSOCIATION FUND.

NEW TRUSTEES.

The future administration of the Seaton Association Fund for the relief of the widows and orphans of soldiers killed in the Crimea, which had been subsequently amended by making it applicable to the widows and children of soldiers who had been killed while serving in Ireland, was again before Mr. Justice Pim in the Chancery Division yesterday, the departure of the British troops from Southern Ireland, following the Treaty with England, having rendered it necessary to make certain alterations in the scheme and to appoint new trustees.

The funds of the charity now amount to £1,476 London, Midland and Scottish Railway Stock, £640 Bank of Ireland Stock and £1,467 5 per cent. War Stock. The fund had been administered by British military officers, but those trustees had left Ireland following the removal of the British Army. When the matter was last before the Court the various bodies interested had been requested to send in the names of suggested trustees.

Mr. Justice Pim now stated that, subject to anything that he might hear, he proposed to appoint as new trustees the following seven gentlemen:—The Right Hon. T. F. Molony (Lord Chief Justice), General Sir Bryan Mahon, Major-General Gerrard, Lieutenant-Colonel Grogan, Mr. George Duggan, Mr. James Robinson and Mr. Edward D. McLoughlin. It would be noticed that he had given rather more power to the Drummond Institution than to others, because that institution had been specially mentioned in the scheme. He had given at least two members to the British War Office, for, after all, it was British soldiers who were to be objects of the charity. He had given one member to the Northern Government and one to the Free State Government.

Counsel for the various parties raising no objection to any of the suggested trustees, Mr. Justice Pim confirmed the appointment of the gentlemen whose names he had mentioned, and he allowed all parties their costs.

Mr. S. L. Brown, K.C., and Mr. Sainsbury (instructed by Messrs. Gerald Byrne and Co.) appeared for the trustees of the Fund; Mr. Jellett, K.C., and Mr. Hubert Hamilton (instructed by Mr. James Robinson) for the Drummond Institution; Mr. Newett (instructed by Mr. Maxwell) for the Commissioners of Charitable Donations and Bequests; and Mr. Herbert Wilson, K.C., and Mr. Tobias (instructed by Mr. R. W. MacNeice) for the Northern Ministry.

The King will hold a Council next Friday.

DUBLIN AND THE PROVINCES.

DUBLIN.

ALLEGED ROBBERY. — At the Dublin Police Court yesterday, Alfred Leonard, James's street, was remanded, charged with robbing Miss Banks, a member of the nursing staff of the Eye and Ear Hospital, Adelaide road, on Vico road, Dalkey, on Friday evening last. Miss Banks identified the accused at the Dalkey Police Barrack at the man who had robbed her.

STRAYED CARRIER PIGEONS. — A carrier pigeon—number on ring, 1267—awaits claiming by its owner at Roebuck Hill, Dundrum, Co. Dublin. A carrier pigeon, bearing a rubber ring marked 213 D., is at the residence of Mr. A. M. Scott, Locksley, Shankill, Co. Dublin, who invites the owner to communicate with him, giving particulars of other markings.

NORTHERN IRELAND.

£100 FOR CATCHBOY'S DEATH.—The Deputy Recorder of Belfast, giving judgment yesterday morning in the case in which John Moore and Elizabeth Moore, parents of Joseph Moore, a catchboy, employed by Messrs. Workman, Clark, Ltd., sought compensation under the Workmen's Compensation Act for his death on the 5th February, 1924, held that the applicants and two children were dependents to the extent of 15s. per week, and he awarded £100, to be allocated on the basis of £20 each to the father and mother and £30 each to the two children.

UNPROFITABLE FARMING.—The farm accounts for the half-year, submitted at the meeting of the Derry Board of Guardians, showed a loss of £6 16s. 4d., the sales for the period being £90 down. The Clerk said the value of the stock was £155 less than for the corresponding period last year. Their position was, however, no worse than that of most farmers.

SUDDEN DEATH.—While talking to a fellow-worker at the Belfast Gas Works yesterday morning, Thomas Crothers, 55, of Craigmore street, Belfast, dropped dead. The body was removed to the morgue at the Royal Victoria Hospital. It is stated that a brother of the deceased died suddenly about a year ago while at work.

PUBLICANS FINED. — For supplying drink to an intoxicated man, William Moore, publican, Dungannon, was fined £5 at Dungannon Licensing Sessions. His licence was ordered to be endorsed. Margaret Moore, publican, Donaghmore, was fined 10s. and costs for serving intoxicating liquor during prohibited hours.

SCOUTS' SUCCESSFUL SALE.—A very successful sale of work, organised by the local Boy Scouts and Cubs, who are raising their quota for the Wembley Exhibition funds, was held in the Congregational Schoolhouse, Whiteabbey, Co. Antrim. The stalls were well supplied with a variety of useful and ornamental articles, and did a brisk business, while the side shows were extensively patronised.

BETTING OFFENCES IN OMAGH.—At Omagh Petty Sessions yesterday, Arthur Birtles, Lisnamallard, was fined £5 for unlawfully using a room in George street, Omagh, for the purpose of betting. James M'Mahon was fined £1 for permitting Birtles to use the room for the purpose, and John Curran, Killyblack, was fined 10s. for aiding and abetting Birtles. James M'Kee, Castle street, Omagh, was fined £1 for allowing his premises to be used for betting purposes, and Patrick Quinn, Castle street, for aiding and abetting him, was fined 10s. Thomas F. Tierney, John street, Omagh, was fined £1 for using premises for the purpose of betting, and Michael Boyce, George street, was fined 10s. for aiding and abetting.

SLEEPY SICKNESS.—With four new cases, the total number of cases of sleepy sickness notified in Belfast is now 179.

The Marchioness of Londonderry was at home at Londonderry House, Park lane, yesterday, to meet supporters of the Guild of Officers.

A "Flag Day" in Derry on Saturday in aid of St. Dunstan's blinded sailors and soldiers realised £146.

SECURITY FOR FRANCE.

MORE IMPORTANT THAN REPARATIONS.

IRISH TIMES FOREIGN SERVICE.

PARIS, Monday.

In his speech at the Conseil Général of the Meuse to-day, M. Poincaré declared that the question of security was even more important for France than that of reparations. To-day the situation was most grave, as, without doubt, Germany was deliberately violating the Treaty of Versailles, and was rebuilding war material and military formations.

M. Poincaré proceeded that he had communicated this information to the Allies. It had never sufficed to be pacific, much less pacifist, to prevent war. France must remain on her guard, and, he declared, he would fight any Government which showed weakness in this respect.

He had always said that France would evacuate the Ruhr in proportion to the payments by Germany. In other words, France desired to evacuate the Ruhr as soon as possible, but he considered it prudent to keep guarantees and to remain in a position to re-seize pledges in the event of fresh German default.—(Reuter.)

SPORT IN BERLIN.

OSTRICHES TO RUN AGAINST RACEHORSES.

BERLIN, Monday.

Can an ostrich give a racehorse three-quarters of a mile start in a two miles' race? This is the question which sportsmen will see answered in Berlin this summer. Forty birds with jockeys have already been engaged to come to Berlin, and it is hoped that the novelty will attract huge crowds.

The ostriches will be trained in exactly the same way as racehorses, and will race against each other and also against horses. The latter, however, will be given a big start.—(Reuter.)

MISSIONARIES IN CHINA.

TWO REPORTED KILLED.

HONG KONG, Monday.

Reports from Wuchow state that great anxiety is felt for the safety of several missionaries, including Bishop Holden, of the Church Missionary Society, who are at Kweilin, in Kwangsi Province.

Owing to the operations of the rival Generals, Lu Kwing-Ting and Shum Hungying, Kweilin has been in a state of siege for several weeks. The city is short of food and water, and is being constantly shelled. It is reported that the Rev. R. L. Basum and the Rev. J. R. Cunnings have been killed. A motor launch has been despatched from Wuchow carrying food and medical supplies, in an attempt to rescue the missionaries.—(Times telegram.)

AMERICA'S NEW AIRSHIP.

TO CROSS THE ATLANTIC NEXT MONTH.

IRISH TIMES FOREIGN SERVICE.

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.

FRIEDRICHSHAFEN, Monday.

The new American Zeppelin, the ZR 3, will cross the Atlantic in June, it is officially announced by the experts here.

Early in March difficulties were experienced with the 400 horse-power motors needed for the ZR 3, and the test flights, which were to have taken place then, had to be postponed. The Maybach Engineering Company, which constructed the engines, used entirely a new design for the motors, and their explanation was that the usual minor difficulties which develop in new models made their appearance. The engineers now state that the first trial trip will take place next month.

Director Eckener, who will pilot the ZR 3 in the trial flights and on the trip across the Atlantic to the airship's new home at Lakehurst, New Jersey, has already obtained permission from the Swedish Government to fly over Sweden in the course of the trial flights.

MOSUL DEADLOCK.

A deadlock has arisen in the negotiations between Great Britain and Turkey over the future of Mosul, "the Oil City of Mesopotamia." The Turks have not modified the claims which they pressed at the Lausanne Conference, and they still demand that the Mosul territory should be given to them.

If Britain and Turkey do not settle the future of Mosul by next July, the dispute will automatically be referred to the League of Nations. This is provided in the Treaty of Lausanne, and cannot be abrogated.

INDIAN JUDGE'S DEATH.

CALCUTTA, Monday.

There was a remarkable scene here to-day on the arrival of the remains of Sir Asutosh Mookerjee, Judge of the Calcutta High Court, who died suddenly yesterday in Patna. There was no legal business. Enormous crowds, including hundreds of barefooted students, came out to meet the cortége and accompanied it to the cremation ground.—(Reuter.)

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

IRISH WAR MEMORIALS.

FRANCE, FLANDERS AND SERBIA.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

SIR,—It will be remembered that at the beginning of last December a scheme was set on foot to erect in France, in Flanders and in the Near East three granite crosses of Celtic design in memory of the many Irishmen who fell in the Great War and in commemoration of the deeds of the two South Irish Divisions, the 10th and the 16th. As we have already informed the public through the medium of the Irish Press, we had estimated that we would require a sum of about £2,300 to carry through the project in a manner worthy of the occasion.

We had hoped to have obtained a grant of £1,500 from the Irish National War Memorial Fund, and we asked the public to subscribe the remainder. We had hoped that the whole sum would have been forthcoming in time to have permitted us to arrange for the erection and unveiling of the crosses in France and Flanders by the 7th June, the anniversary of the Battle of Wytschaete-Messines. Early in the present year it was decided by the Executive Council of the Irish War Memorial Fund that it would be necessary to obtain the permission of the Courts before any expenditure was sanctioned by them from the funds in their custody. It is hoped that the matter will be laid before the Court in the course of the next few weeks.

In response to our appeal the public have most generously subscribed the sum of £690. With this money we have been able to order the crosses for France and Flanders. These have been completed by Messrs. H. Emery and Son, of 17 Great Brunswick street, Dublin, where they can be seen. The cross for Serbia has not yet been commenced. We are now obliged to await the decision of the Court before proceeding further in our undertaking. From the time that the money is paid in to our account, if the Courts so direct, it will take about two months to transport and erect the crosses at Wytschaete and Ginchy and to arrange all the details of the unveiling ceremonies. As soon as we are in a position to resume work we shall again ask you to permit us to inform the public and our many subscribers through the medium of your columns.—Yours, etc.,

JOHN WESLEY.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

SIR,—In view of the celebrations which took place on Saturday and Sunday, may I be permitted to point out a very interesting coincidence? Empire Day falls on the date of the birth of Queen Victoria; but the 24th May is associated with another incident fraught with tremendous significance to the British Empire. On the 24th May, 1738, John Wesley passed through that spiritual experience which completely transformed his life and impelled him, with Charles Wesley and Whitfield, to enter upon an evangelistic career. Lecky says that that day marked an epoch in English history. He adds: "Although the career of the elder Pitt and the splendid victories by land and sea that were won during his Ministry form unquestionably the most dazzling episodes in the reign of George II., they must yield, I think, in real importance to that religious revolution which shortly before had begun in England by the preaching of the Wesleys and Whitfield."

John Wesley was an incessant itinerant. "He paid more turnpikes than any man who ever bestrode a beast." He travelled at least 208,000 miles and preached over 40,000 times. He visited Ireland frequently and had a great love for our people. His "Journals" may be commended to anyone who wishes to know something about eighteenth century life.—Yours, etc.,

DIVORCE IN THE FREE STATE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

SIR,—It is now over two years since the signing of the Treaty and almost a year and a half since the Free State came into being, and as yet the Government have taken no steps to provide means by which a Free State citizen can obtain divorce a vinculo matrimonii. Three applications for leave to introduce divorce bills were lodged last autumn, in accordance with the Standing Orders, in the Private Bill Office of the Oireachtas. These bills have not yet been advanced even to the preliminary stage (a purely formal one) of examination by the Examiner of Bills for compliance with the existing Standing Orders. This method of obstruction effectively prevents the bills from reaching the Oireachtas; so, apart altogether from the ultimate fate of these bills at the hands of the majorities in the Dail and Senate, it looks as if the promoters are not to be extended even the courtesy of having their bills dealt with.

Only a small number of individuals would be affected by a decision to prohibit divorce. Nevertheless, the principle underlying such a decision would be very ominous for the large number constituting the minority in the Free State, and would give food for thought to those in the Six Counties who might be seriously considering the question of the ultimate fusion of Northern Ireland and the Free State.—Yours, etc.,

"FREE STATE CITIZEN."

MR. JOHNSON AND UNEMPLOYMENT.

RAISING AN ARMY OF PRODUCTION.

In the course of a speech at a meeting held under the auspices of the Cork Labour party and the Cork Workers' Council, in St. Patrick's Hall, Cork, last night, over which Mr. T. Walsh, Chairman of the Cork Labour party, presided, Mr. T. Johnson, T.D., alluding to the prevalence of poverty in Cork, said that he was tempted to say, though one refrained from saying it, "You asked for it and you got it." One could imagine that Cork had no representative in the National Assembly. The slogan of the Labour party was that humanity must be considered above property. The first duty of a Government was to see that no child was hungry or ill-clad. If unemployment was to be dealt with the necessity was so great that it called for the raising of an industrial army, an army of production to do the work to supply the needs of the people. He would be prepared to make every allowance for the Government—for they had a very difficult time—if they showed any intention of grappling with the greatest of problems seriously and earnestly.

If he were called upon to deal with it he would take a record of every man willing to work, and find out what work he was fittest to do, a record of what every factory in the country was able to turn out, and of what land was tilled and untilled, and so would put every man willing to work, and insist on the man working to the best of his ability, and pay him well for his work.

CARE OF THE YOUNG.

FREE STATE EDUCATIONAL DEFICIENCIES.

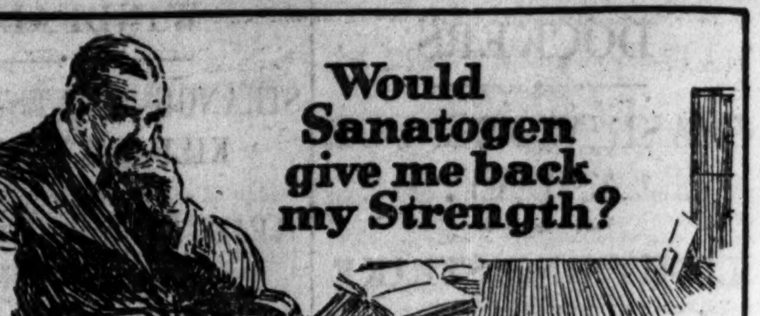

In the course of his remarks at the opening of this month's sitting of the Dublin Children's Court, Dr. Myles Keogh, T.D., stated that it was possibly his last occasion to preside, as the Judicial Act provided for the establishment of a new Children's Court, and he anticipated that such cases as usually came before him would in future be dealt with by that tribunal. He expressed himself as convinced practically nothing had yet been done to make compulsory education a reality.

The care of the health and the physical development of school children called for effective and prompt action. A nation depended for its progress on the efficiency and skill of its citizens, and it could hardly hope to raise, in modern complex conditions, the fabric of a well-ordered State if its people were unhealthy, uneducated, and unskilled.

RATS BLAMED FOR SERIOUS NENAGH FIRE.

RAILWAY CLERICAL WORKERS.

REPLY TO THE COMPANIES.

The Railway Clerks' Association of Great Britain and Ireland has issued the following reply to the statement of the companies' case published in the Irish Times yesterday:—

The Railway Clerks' Association's proposals were submitted in July, 1923. Six months later the companies resorted to the time-honoured device of making a counter-claim. During the last three years the Railway Clerks' Association grades have lost over £250,000 in salary cuts, bonuses, reduction in Sunday rates, etc. The proposals only ask for the return of a small percentage of this sum. Many clerks have lost £90 a year since March, 1921.

The proposals do not seek an increase in the basic rates, but only ask that the maxima shall be reached earlier. The companies' statement omits to mention that 60 per cent. of the male clerks are in Class V., with a maximum of 77s a week on Group I. railways, and 69s. a week on Group III. railways, and that these sums are reached only after 15 years' service. The Railway Clerks' Association asks that 77s. shall be paid after 11 years' service—not a very drastic claim for men entering by open competition! Only 22 per cent. of the staff can ever hope to go beyond the two lower classes. A clerk with five years' service gets only 38s. a week. The companies' advocate said in reply to a question at the Wages Board that, after five years' apprenticeship, it was still reasonable to expect parents to subsidise the railway companies by assisting railway clerks paid these figures to maintain themselves.

Over 10 per cent. of the station-masters start at 57s. 8d., and finish at 61s. 6d., a week, with 10 per cent. less salary for 14 small railways. Another 45 per cent. start at 65s. 4d. and finish at 77s., with 10 per cent. less for the small railways. Only 22 per cent. can ever go beyond the three lower classes. Station-masters are not now supplied with free house, coal, and light, as formerly. The Railway Clerks' Association asks that the lower class men get their 61s. 6d. on appointment, and that the men in 5th Class shall start at 71s., and reach their maximum of 77s. three years earlier than now. Not an extravagant claim on behalf of men who hold their positions as the reward of long and efficient service!

THE IRISH AGREEMENT.

For all grades it is asked that, pending more satisfactory arrangements of a permanent character, men and women for whom no promotion is available, and who are a certain time stagnating on the maximum of their class, shall go into the next highest class, but go no further pending promotion.

It is not correct to say that the Irish agreement is as good as the British, seeing that 14 small Irish companies pay 10 per cent. less than the standard rates; that there are no bonuses in Ireland, and that the reduced rates for Sunday work, the withdrawal of "stand by" allowances from station-masters, and the wholesale disimprovements in conditions of service, leave the Irish agreement a mere shadow of the British agreement. A far greater proportion of the British staffs are in the higher classes.

The figures re alleged increases on pre-war are fantastic, and were so proved before the Wages Board. From the 1913 amount there are omitted the salaries of hundreds of men which are included in the 1923 figures. It is a pity the companies should again quote figures they have already admitted are wrong. Taking as an example the Midland Great Western head office clerks (a large proportion of the whole): at age 25 we find the aggregate increase in salary to a clerk joining at age 16 is 40 per cent. over pre-war. In the case of the Great Southern and Western it is 50 per cent. and about 64 per cent. on the Dublin and South-Eastern. The present index figure stands at 78 per cent. over pre-war. These facts were proved, and stood uncontested before the Wages Board. Most stationmasters have had even lower percentage increases. So much for the alleged increase of 155 per cent.

The salaries paid to all classes of clerical workers outside the railway service are much higher in Ireland than in Great Britain. Hence the position of the stationmaster and clerk in Ireland is relatively much worse than that of his colleague in Great Britain. He must live in the same locality, buy in the same shops, and move in the same circle as other clerical workers who are paid from 25 per cent. to 76 per cent. higher salaries than he is (vide Railway Wages Board evidence). Yet the British railway clerical employés are putting forward much more comprehensive proposals. The cost of living in Ireland is admittedly much higher than in Britain. It is by Irish conditions our economic position is governed, not by conditions obtaining elsewhere. The companies have greater financial reserves than at any period in all their long history and in nearly every instance their permanent way and rolling stock are better than at any previous period. They pay, on the average, slightly higher dividends than the British lines, and more than double the dividends paid by the U.S.A. railways before the war.

The recent correspondence between Mr. Ramsay Macdonald and M. Poincaré will be published next Thursday.

BIGGER BELFAST.

BOUNDARIES TO BE EXTENDED.

BILL TO BE PROMOTED BY CORPORATION.

The Belfast Corporation is about to seek Parliamentary sanction for the extension of the city's boundaries by taking in a considerable portion of the rural district at present outside the jurisdiction of the Council.

The fact came to light yesterday during a discussion in the Northern Parliament on the Belfast Corporation Bill, a private measure.

Captain Mulholland moved an amendment, the effect of which was to prevent the Corporation from running motor 'buses outside the city to Purdysburn. The Corporation representatives had agreed to the amendment. The reason why objection was taken to this provision was because a corporation, when it proposed to run over the roads outside its jurisdiction, should have some regard to the rights of the adjoining road authorities. In this case the rural district was already heavily burdened enough without the additional cost of further road upkeep owing to having to pay towards the cost of the Lisburn burnings.

Mr. McMullen seconded the amendment, and said that it the Corporation wished to provide facilities for people to visit the asylum and Purdysburn they should do so at its own expense.

Sir Crawford McCullagh made the interesting announcement that the Belfast Corporation intended shortly to introduce a bill to extend its boundary. This would include the roads referred to, and in the meantime the Corporation did not wish to press for the power in the bill to run 'buses over these roads.

Mr. Donald and Mr. Grant commented upon the action of country members objecting to give facilities to the city, although many heavy vehicles from the county constantly used the city streets.

Mr. Grant said that if the services of the Belfast Fire Brigade were required in an adjoining district or in the case of patients sent from the country to Belfast hospitals the roads over which the vehicles travelled were not questioned.

The bill, as amended, was passed.

POLICE BARRACKS BILL.

The Attorney-General (the Right Hon. Richard Best) moved the second reading of the Royal Ulster Constabulary (Acquisition of Land) Bill, the object of which, he said, was to obtain compulsory powers to acquire land for new barracks. In the first instance a Provisional Order would be issued in the case of any specified site, and, having made such Order and notice having been given to the owner or occupier, a month would be allowed for making the objection. The Ministry, having heard the objection, would either modify the order or confirm it as originally made. With regard to the price to be paid for the site, this would be fixed by arbitration, with a right of appeal by the owner, and also the Ministry, to the County Court Judge.

The bill was read a second time.

ENTERTAINMENTS TAX.

Sir Crawford McCullagh inquired when he could raise the question of the entertainments tax, which was not being reduced in Northern Ireland.

The Speaker said that the matter could have been raised by an amendment to the Budget statement, but the opportunity would not occur until the autumn, when the Finance Bill would be under consideration.

The Minister of Home Affairs, Mr. Megaw, replying to Colonel Woods, said that the laws governing the speeds of motor vehicles in England and Northern Ireland were identical, except as regards heavy motor cars, if fitted with pneumatic tyres or tyres of a soft or elastic material. Since the 1st June, 1922, a maximum speed of twelve miles per hour is permitted in Great Britain for any heavy motor cars fitted with tyres made of a soft or elastic material when not drawing a trailer. In Northern Ireland a heavy motor car not drawing a trailer may travel at twelve miles per hour only if the vehicle was fitted with pneumatic tyres or tyres of a soft or elastic material, and if the registered axle weight of any axle does not exceed six tons. If the registered axle weight of such a vehicle exceeds six tons a maximum speed of only eight miles is permitted.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT APPOINTMENT.

The Minister for Local Government has appointed Mr. Arthur C. Ellis, LL.B., Barrister-at-Law, to be the Auditor of the accounts of the County Borough of Dublin and the Dublin Poor Law Union. Mr. Ellis was, in January, 1912, appointed a Local Government Auditor, in succession to his father, Dr. W. E. Ellis, who then retired on pension. For several years he had charge of the Western District, and during that period he was instrumental in settling the financial affairs of Sligo Corporation, Ballinasloe Asylum and other public institutions. In July, 1920, Mr. Ellis left the Western District, and received a complimentary address bearing the signatures of over forty of the principal officials in the district.

GARDEN PRODUCE.

HOW TO MARKET IT SUCCESSFULLY.

At the weekly luncheon meeting of the Dublin Rotary Club, in Clery's Restaurant, yesterday, Sir Thomas Robinson presiding, Mrs. Pontet, St. Gatiens, Rathfarnham, delivered a lecture on "The marketing of garden produce, and the best means to accomplish it."

Mrs. Pontet said that the first essential of successful marketing was a convenient market. If produce had to be sent long distances its marketable value would be greatly reduced.

The nature of the crops to be grown would entirely depend upon circumstances. The market grower with many acres would grow large quantities of field crops, such as potatoes, white turnips, cabbages, etc. He would plough his land and gather his crops by the cart load. The small farmer, on the other hand, would concentrate on choice produce, such as sealkale, asparagus, strawberries, small fruit, and cut flowers.

Certain varieties were found to be more marketable than others. For example, in the Dublin market the prevailing variety of lettuce used was "All the Year Round," which was in season from June to September, while "Standstead Park" was mostly grown for early spring marketing. It was a mistake to try and force the market with new varieties, as they would take a long time to catch on.

Mr. James C. Uden, in proposing a vote of thanks to the lecturer, endorsed everything she had said, and emphasised the importance of packing goods in a proper manner.

Mr. M. V. Rowan, who seconded, said that the success of market gardening in such districts as Rush, Co. Dublin, was due to the fact that the work was carried on by small holders with large families. He had seen as many as fifty cars daily bringing in produce from the Rush district alone, but latterly transport by motor lorry had come into favour.

Mr. P. Gillespie said that the lecturer had advised them not to force the market, but he had found from wide experience that it was possible to force the market by proper advertising.

Sir Thomas Robinson, conveying the vote of thanks, said that the attractive presentation of an article enhanced its market value, 75 per cent.

MAJOR BAILEY'S BODY.

FATHER'S EVIDENCE AT THE INQUEST.

The inquest on the body of Major Bailey, which was found in the Thames, was held in London yesterday by Dr. Waldo, City Coroner, who, addressing the jury, said that the body was in a highly decomposed condition, but had since been kept in a Formalin preserving apparatus, which had in many cases, by means of fumes, restored the features of drowned people to a condition in which they were recognisable.

Evidence of identification was given by Mr. J. I. Bailey, of Hanley, Staffordshire, father of the deceased man. Although it was extremely difficult to recognise the body, he was satisfied that it was that of his son. He identified various articles found on the body, including a gold watch, a gold tooth in a silver case, and a photograph of his son's wife.

The Coroner, referring to a letter which had been written by Major Bailey to his father, said that he did not propose to read it in presence of the Press. "I find," he said, "over and over again that the publication of these letters is doing a lot of harm to the general public. There is such a thing as imitation by suggestion. Some people read daily or Sunday newspapers with avidity. There are photographs and all the morbid details of sensational cases. The result is that oftentimes similar cases to those they have reported, such as suicides, occur."

The witness told the court that his son was twice wounded in the war, and since then he had been subject to dreadful fits of despondency.

Sir Bernard Spilsbury, who made the post-mortem examination, said that he found in the skull two wounds caused by the passage of a bullet, which must have entered the head on the right side and passed out on the opposite side. Death might have been due to coma caused by the wound and accelerated by immersion in the water. The body must have been in the water at least two or three months, and might have been six months. "I am satisfied," added Sir Bernard, "that he entered the water alive because of the condition of the skin."

The jury returned a verdict of suicide while of unsound mind.

THE HOTEL POISONING CASE.

When the Frenchman, Vaquier, again appeared before the Woking (Surrey) magistrates yesterday, charged with the murder of Alfred Jones, the Byfleet hotel keeper, statements made by the prisoner declaring his innocence were read. In these Vaquier was alleged to have said that he loved Jones as a brother, and he was the victim of a coward, jealous of his presence in the hotel.

DEATH OF A CENTENARIAN.

"CORPORATION" PASS MORE RESOLUTIONS.

PROTESTS AGAINST THE DISSOLUTION ORDER.

MEETING OF BURGESSES TO BE CALLED.

Three resolutions were passed yesterday by about forty of the sixty-three members of the dissolved Dublin Corporation at a meeting called by the Lord Mayor and held in the Mansion House:—

Resolution No. 1 instructed the Lord Mayor to call a public meeting of burgesses to press for an immediate election.

Resolution No. 2 appointed a committee of nine to act with the Lord Mayor and send a statement to all public bodies in the country and, if necessary, call a conference of those bodies in Dublin.

Resolution No. 3 expressed the opinion that members should not take part in the proceedings of other public bodies or committees on which they had represented the Council.

None of the Corporation officials attended the meeting. Councillor O'Callaghan was appointed to act as secretary. The Lord Mayor, who stated that he had invited to the meeting only those to whom he owed allegiance, said that whatever decision might be come to by the majority of his colleagues he would loyally stand by it. He had taken up a certain personal attitude, and by that position he would stand. To the Council and to the Council alone would he hand in his gun. (Hear, hear.)

He did not come before his colleagues with a swan song, but he would be false to his position if he sat down without protesting in the strongest manner possible at the gross insult that had been offered to the citizens of Dublin. He sat through the inquiry that had been held, and, if there was anything in that inquiry, why were they not made aware of it—why had the citizens not got an opportunity of criticising the Council and saying whether they had erred or not?

The policy that he would respectfully suggest to the meeting as that which should be followed would be to get the Government by the throat and demand an election, so as to give the Council an opportunity of rendering an account of their stewardship to the citizens. It was for the citizens and for the citizens only to decide.

NO CHANGE OF POLICY.

Councillor Daly then moved the following resolution:—

Whereas the passage of the Local Government Act of 1898 was the result of fifty years' agitation, imprisonment, and suffering for the establishment of the democratic rights of local representation; and whereas the Free State Government at two hours' notice dissolved the most ancient Corporation in Ireland, and, in our judgment, have grossly insulted the citizens of Dublin, this meeting instructs the Lord Mayor to call a public meeting of burgesses, to consider the situation arising out of the undemocratic action of the Government, and to press for an immediate election for members of the Corporation; and, further, to take such steps as may be considered necessary to place the facts before our fellow-countrymen.

Councillor Daly said that it seemed a peculiar thing that a man beloved of the citizens of Dublin, because he would not allow himself to be made a tool to insult his colleagues, should be removed from his high office at two hours' notice.

In what way did the Council differ in its procedure from the time when Alderman William Cosgrave was a member of the Corporation? They had gone on exactly the same lines, and had endeavoured to carry out the policy laid down by him as the leader of the majority party in the Council at that time. It was not claimed that the dissolved Council was the best there could be, but its members could claim that they did their best according to their lights.

It was said they were extravagant, but when the President of the Free State was Chairman of the Finance Committee the budget he proposed was far in excess of that recently adopted. For the last four years the Council had initiated larger housing schemes than during the whole decade before that.

The Minister who issued the dissolution order did not seem to have made the slightest attempt to instruct himself in the slightest degree on the subject of Irish local government or its functions. He was graciously pleased to tell the members who were sent by the Council to serve on the Port and Docks Board they could remain on that body. He did not know that they could not be on the Port and Docks Board once they ceased to be members of the Corporation.

Time after time the Council had called for an election to give them a chance to go before the citizens, but that was refused. Some said the election would not be held because some people bearing the banner of the Government would be defeated at the polls.

If the Government were allowed to get away with their treatment of the ancient Corporation of Dublin the turn of other public bodies would come next.

HUMILIATED.

Councillor M. J. Moran, who seconded the resolution, said that he considered that the dissolution of the Corporation of Dublin by the Government (a very young body) was a very serious matter indeed. He did not propose to justify the Corporation, but he did hold that an election of a Council was long overdue, and the Government should have given the citizens the right to choose their own representatives. If they could hold an election for the Dail surely they could have an election for the municipal representation of the City of Dublin. Furthermore, he thought that they might reasonably question the suitability of the Commissioners who had been set up. (Hear, hear.)

Alderman O'Kelly hoped that there would be nothing along party lines in the attitude taken up by the members of the Council. When their ancient municipal body had been struck in such a humiliating fashion the Council, no matter what their political views, should stand up as one against the indignity put upon the city. The citizens of Dublin knew thoroughly well that the Council was not deserving of the blow struck at it and at the city. The Council would abide by the result of an election, or of a referendum to the burgesses on the question of replacing them by paid officials.

NOT EXTRAVAGANT.

Councillor Gately said that had the action taken by the Minister been the decision of the Dail he would have bowed his head to it. He held that the Council now dissolved was neither extravagant, dishonest, nor inefficient.

The Lord Mayor having occasion to check an interruption, rapped his desk with a pencil and remarked: "They have even taken my hammer away from me."

Senator Councillor Farren said that the action of the Minister was the outcome of the protracted vilification of those who wanted to crush the Corporation because it had been the first citadel of the ascendancy to be captured for the people. It stood up against the Local Government Board in the past, and some of the old officials of that body were now pulling the strings to humiliate the Corporation that they could not terrorise.

Councillor Mrs. Skeffington said that the Council was condemned for its virtues, and the permanent officials of the Free State Local Government were pulling the strings. The three inexperienced young men appointed as Commissioners would, no doubt, eat up every public body in the Free State.

Alderman Staines held that, if there was anything found wrong with the Corporation the electors should be allowed to replace them if they so wished.

OVERDRAFT WIPED OUT.

Alderman Hubbard Clarke said that he came to the meeting out of courtesy to the Lord Mayor, and with his mind made up that he could not support any resolution that might be proposed. He found he was mistaken in his opinion, and was now quite prepared to support Councillor Daly's resolution. He met some citizens who were jubilant at what had been done, and those he tried to make understand that the insult had been to the citizens, and not to the members of the Corporation.

Councillor Raul said that the dissolved Council had come into office to face a tremendous overdraft, the result of the false economy of preceding committees, who were afraid to stand up against a bad Press. That overdraft had been wiped out. There was more than the Free State Government behind what had happened. It was true that the Council committed the fault of opposing the Tramway Company, which had a lot to say with the policy of portion of the Dublin Press. Everyone knew that the Council was honest, hard-working and efficient, a splendid administrative body. Now the Government had decided that the spending of over £1,000,000, to be collected from the ratepayers of Dublin, was to be in the hands of Corporation officials.

Councillor Logue maintained that the Town Clerk was aware of what was coming, and had ready the machinery necessary for the Commissioners to carry on.

The Lord Mayor said that so far the debate had been carried on in a most dignified manner, and he asked that officials of the Corporation should not be brought into it.

Councillor Logue—Very well. It was well known, he added, that for several months machinery was being put in operation to make it possible for the Commissioners to come in and take charge. One of the real reasons for the destruction of this ancient Corporation was that we refused to admit that 50s. a week was a living wage.

Councillor Briscoe, as a member of the Council for almost 27 years, supported the resolution.

"A DIGNIFIED PROTEST."

The Lord Mayor congratulated the meeting on the dignified manner in which their protest had been made, and the resolution was passed unanimously.

Councillor Medlar proposed, and there was adopted, a resolution appointing a committee of nine to act with the Lord Mayor in the situation, to draw up a statement to be sent to all public bodies in the country, and, if thought desirable, to summon a conference of representatives of those bodies to be held in Dublin.

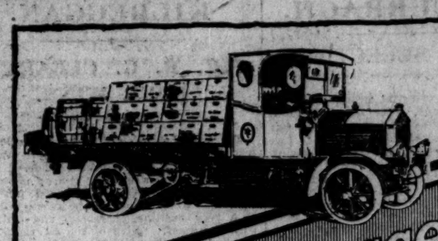

The Lord Mayor reminded the meeting that they had no funds to enter on an elaborate campaign in the country.

Another resolution was passed expressing the opinion that members of the dissolved Council should not take part in the proceedings of other public boards or committees which they had attended as representatives of the Corporation.

The following members attended:—Lord Mayor, Aldermen Hubbard Clarke, Staines, Lawlor, O'Kelly, O'Reilly, O'Connor, Murphy. Councillors Mrs. M'Garry, Mrs. Sheehy Skeffington, Raul, Daly, Gately, Clarke, Farren, M. J. Moran, O'Callaghan, Logue, Briscoe, Medlar, Nolan, Stritch, Hynes, Atkins, Brennan, Lawlor, Flanagan, Farrell, Bohan, Mooney, Gordon, O'Mallin, Chas. Brohoon, Grace, Byrne, Keogh, O'Toole, Maxwell-Lemon.

The death occurred in Londonderry last night of a twenty-year-old shipwright named Robert McKemin, of Upper Bennett street. It appears that some years ago he received an injury to his head, from the effects of which he never fully recovered. He had been very depressed of late. Last night, when he was in the house alone, he is said to have gashed his throat with a razor. He was removed to the infirmary, but died an hour after admission.

Instant success of the new 3 & 4-ton Mark II Albion

LARGE firms who keep a close watch on their transport costs have quickly realised the advantages obtained with the improved 3 and 4-ton Mark II Albion.

This latest achievement of motor engineering skill embodies improvements which result in greater power, higher speed, and still lower cost per ton-mile, in a vehicle that has already gained a world-wide reputation for unequalled economy and reliability in operation.

The low loading platform is a labour-saving feature which aids considerably in the reduction of working costs.

3-ton Chassis, £695. 4-ton Chassis, £755.

"IT is with pleasure I desire to let you know how very helpful Phosferine is to me when engaged on arduous mental work. During the last few years I have frequently suffered from Insomnia and Nervous Strain caused by continued scientific research work. At these times I have found that Phosferine is wonderfully corrective of such troublesome and dejecting conditions. The tonic is a first rate antidote for depression and especially invigorating when one is feeling mentally fagged. I find it immediately renews the tone of my nerves, and enables me to carry out my experiments in a satisfactory manner." (May 8, 1924).

From the very first day you take PHOSFERINE you will gain new confidence, new life, new endurance. It makes you eat better and sleep better, and you will look as fit as you feel. Phosferine is given with equally good results to children.

FIRED AT DETECTIVES.

CHARGES AGAINST THREE DUBLIN MEN.

At Drumcondra, Co. Dublin, District Court yesterday, John O'Neill, Broadstone; Francis McPartlin and Valentine Sheridan, of Phibsborough, were charged with having, while armed, on the 17th instant, attempted to rob persons at Dunboyne. They were also charged with having, on the same date, attempted to destroy the Civic Guard barrack at Dunboyne. O'Neill was further charged with having attempted to murder Detective Officers Byrne and Jordan.

Evidence was given by Detective Officer Jordan that, while in a motor car near Dunboyne on the 17th instant, with some other detectives, he saw a group of men on the roadside. When the car pulled up a shot was fired at the occupants.

Detective Officer Conroy stated that he found a revolver containing one live cartridge in a ditch close to where the men had been standing. O'Neill told him that he had thrown it away.

O'Neill was returned for trial, bail being refused. McPartlin and Sheridan were remanded on bail for a week.

THE CHURCH OF IRELAND.

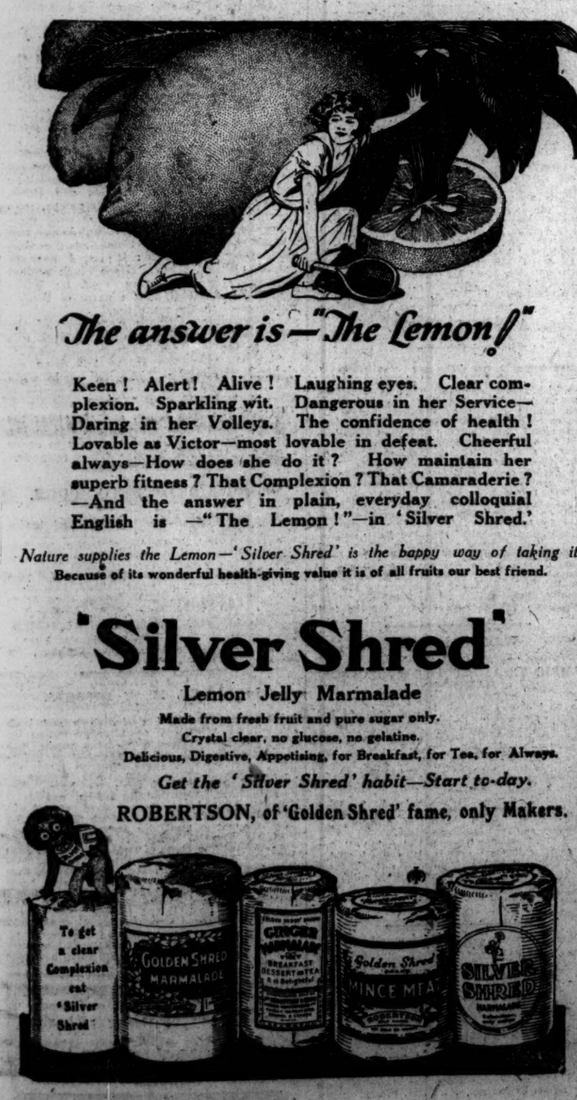

It is now known that in addition to the King and Queen there will be present at the consecration of Liverpool Cathedral no less than eight archbishops, including Canterbury and York and the Metropolitans of Ireland and Wales, together with the Primus of the Scottish Church; more than fifty bishops, also representatives of all the provinces overseas in communion with the Church of England; the Deans of almost all the Cathedrals and the Greek Archimandrite.

Missionary work is being brought well to the fore at the Wembley Exhibition. The Zenana Bible and Medical Mission is dealing there with some of the phases of work among women, and has arranged special conferences and gatherings during the summer. The first of these will be held on the afternoon of June 13th, and the second on the evening of June 25th in Conference Hall No. 2. The object is the promotion of the spiritual side of the Empire. The programme includes personally-conducted parties through the Indian Section.

The Charm of Rich Gleaming Hair

The spirit of feminine charm is summed up in a girl's hair and there are few bigger drawbacks in life than thin "skimpy" dead-looking tresses. Have beautiful, abundant hair, full of life and lustre—gain charm and make people admire you for the loveliness your hair can bring. Lavona Hair Tonic contains a secret wonder-ingredient no other tonic contains and it succeeds where all else fails! Use Lavona and if not amazed and delighted at the resulting beauty and wealth of hair—claim your money back on the coupon that's in each package. Since Lavona Hair Tonic costs but 3s. 11d., including an exquisitely perfumed shampoo sachet, and is obtainable of any good chemist, you should try it without delay.

The answer is—"The Lemon!"

Keen! Alert! Alive! Laughing eyes. Clear complexion. Sparkling wit. Dangerous in her Service—Daring in her Volleys. The confidence of health! Lovable as Victor—most lovable in defeat. Cheerful always—How does she do it? How maintain her superb fitness? That Complexion? That Camaraderie? —And the answer in plain, everyday colloquial English is —"The Lemon!"—in 'Silver Shred.'

Nature supplies the Lemon—'Silver Shred' is the happy way of taking it.
Because of its wonderful health-giving value it is of all fruits our best friend.

MOTOR PARADE IN DUBLIN.

Through the enterprise of Mr. J. A. Campbell, managing director of Clanwilliam Motors, Ltd., and the Durant Motors, Ltd., a striking display of Durant motor cars and commercial vehicles was made in Dublin yesterday. Fifteen cars, every one of which bore a card stating its name and price in bold letters, toured the streets. There were 15.6 h.p. Durants, with American and English bodies: a 15.6 h.p. Rugby saloon and landaulette, a five-seater standard 24 h.p. touring car, a five-seater de luxe tourer, a two-seater of the same type, and a 24 h.p. saloon. Other cars that excited interest were the "Flint Six," the Mason Road King truck, which is eminently suitable for fast work, and is guaranteed to do 40 miles per hour; and the Durant light delivery van, suitable for grocers, bakers, and retail merchants generally.

Durant motor cars were introduced into the Irish Free State by Clanwilliam Motors, Ltd., about eighteen months ago, and now there is scarcely a section of the country where they are not well known. This is due to their fine finish and satisfactory service. Another point in favour of Durant cars is that they are being marketed at prices that suit all classes of the community.

All Durant models can be seen at the premises of Clanwilliam Motors, Ltd., Lower Mount street, Dublin, or at their general engineering works, Lower Baggot street, Dublin.

It is the intention of the company to organise similar displays in other centres of the Free State shortly.

Mr. Chapman, the Federal Minister of Customs, has resigned for reasons of ill-health, says a Melbourne message.

GOSSIP FROM THE COURSE.

ANOTHER CLASSIC COLT.

WOODEND'S FINE PERFORMANCE.

BOX HILL WINS COMFORTABLY.

From Our Travelling Correspondent.

YORK, Monday Night.

Possible Derby winners seem to grow on every gooseberry bush in these days, when opinions about the classic colts are marked only by instability. After he had won the Londesborough Plate this afternoon people began to think about the Epsom chances of Mr. Barclay Walker's colt, Woodend, nibbled at during the winter because on the occasion of his first appearance on the Turf he had beaten Diophon at a stone—he is the only horse who has ever beaten Diophon. He has not been mentioned for a long time, but he will be now, though an impression has got abroad that he cannot quite get the Derby distance.

I have always had a soft corner for Woodend since the day at Doncaster I stood by Frank Hartigan when he bought him for Mr. Walker out of the Sledmore draft. He was altogether a charming colt then, and he is an even more attractive colt now. Not many of the classic three-year-olds impress a great deal on their looks alone, but this one does, and I imagine that in the paddock at Epsom on Wednesday week next there will be few, if any better-looking than this liver chestnut son of Lemberg, with his splendid quality and his fine courageous carriage.

Frank Hartigan lost him at the end of last season, but he has gone on in the right way since he passed into the care of the Lambourn trainer, James Rhodes. To-day he ran terribly green, being, so to speak, all over the course for the better part of six furlongs.

WOODEND'S FINE FORM.

Wykeham and Jaunting Car were leading when they came to the distance, and there Beary seemed to be rather hopelessly shut in, but he pulled him round to the outside, and the moment he got a clear course he settled down to his work, and, passing the others in a few strides, he beat Jaunting Car in a canter by two lengths. There was no particular evidence of lack of stamina here, for the going was heavy, and the York mile is not an easy one.

Woodend was certainly staying on as if a bit extra distance would not have troubled him. When Diophon turned the tables on him in the Middle Park Plate there is no doubt that he was not right, for he had been scouring severely for some time before the race. The colt has undoubtedly done well since last season, and though I am not going to suggest here that he will win the Derby, I shall be surprised if he does not prove himself a smart miler.

STEFANOVNA DISAPPOINTS.

The racing here this afternoon was fair to good. Lord Lascelles' Stefan the Great filly, Stefanovna, a half-sister to Glass Idol, was much expected to win the Knavesmire Plate. She was beaten into third place by the Roman Slave filly and Honey Rock. She is a thickset filly and made a slow beginning, but if she is Marsh's best two-year-old the others cannot be wonders.

A useful Bridge of Earn gelding in In Earnest won the Zetland Plate rather easily from Lord Derby's Coila by a length, this pair having it all to themselves.

In the Flying Dutchman Welter Handicap both the joint favourites, Vigneron and Clochnaben, were outpaced from the start, and after King's Light had dropped from first place to last, Lord Durham's Boxhill came on to win comfortably from Mr. Adam Scott's outsider, Night Guard, with the old Lincolnshire Handicap winner, White Bud, third.

Selling plates at York are usually hard to win, and in one of them to-day, the Ainsty, there was a collection of animals who have flown at higher game. This time it was the turn of the Tracery colt, Bargate, and he reversed the running with Gentleman in the corresponding event last year, beating him by a length and a half. Semi-classic animals of two seasons ago, in Vambrace and Friar's Melody, who once beat Drake at Goodwood, were down the course.

TO-MORROW'S CARD.

Mention of DRAKE reminds me that if he has any course at all he should win the Bath Spring Handicap to-morrow. Winalot runs here to-morrow in the Craven Three-Year-Old Handicap, but I imagine he will be hard pressed to beat AMETHYSTINE, whom I take to win. Ecila runs for the Melrose Handicap, a good sprint, but as DEFLATION was practically a winner at Newmarket last week, the Irish gelding may not be able to give him the weight in the heavy going.

I wish to correct something I wrote last night about Town Guard's race in Paris last week. I mentioned that he gave ten pounds and a length beating to Valclar, for so it was stated in the returns of the race in the London sporting papers. The French papers, however, put an entirely different complexion upon it, and it appears that Town Guard was giving no fewer than 36lb. to Valclar, which makes the performance a fairly remarkable one, and proves that Town Guard must be back in something like his old form.

THE CURRAGH.

TO-DAY'S SELECTIONS.

For the May Meeting at headquarters an attractive programme, with the Irish Two Thousand Guineas as the centrepiece, has been arranged, and, as fields are likely to pan out well, without being unweildy, the racing on all three days should attain to a good standard. Interest in the big race, which does not come on for decision until to-morrow, is enhanced by the participation of the two English-trained colts, Grand Joy and MacCarthy More, and, with the home opposition pretty useful, there is material for a fine contest.

The most important events on to-day's card are the Beginners' Stakes and the Scurry Plate, in the former of which several juveniles that have shown smart form can try conclusions. Special trains leave Kingsbridge each morning at 11.20, 11.50, and 12.15, and return immediately after the last race. Selections for to-day are appended:—

Harristown Plate—King Dennis or Elunyd.
Scurry Plate—Prince Jan.
Ballymany Plate—Hidennis.
Beginners' Stakes—Ballyboley or Goldbound
Loughbrown Plate—Coombs' selected.
Maddenstown Plate—Tranquillete; if absent, Sharp Warrior.

LONDON BETTING—YESTERDAY.

Derby wagering in the early stages yesterday was chiefly confined to Woodend, who was backed for money from 40's down to 25's before he closed at 22 to 1. At the call over, Tom Pinch advanced from 8's, closing favourite at 7's offered. Bright Knight went best of Taylor's quoted trio, closing second favourite at 17 to 2. Diophon, St. Germans and Woodend went best of the remainder. Details:—

PIGEON RACING.

LEINSTER AND NORTH END F.C.

Race from Adavoyle on 17th May (53 miles).—G. Rocliffe, 1,046 yards per minute; P. Daly, 1,041 and 1,041. Race from Banbridge on 24th May (70 miles).—J. McAree, 369; P. Daly, 351; W. J. Farrell, 301.

KILBEGGAN.

MR. R. G. CLEARY'S FOUR WINS.

The annual meeting at Kilbeggan, as usual, proved a big attraction, and there was an attendance which would be considered satisfactory at many a meeting run on more pretentious lines. While the crowd was well up to the usual standard, the racing was not of a very exciting character, and calls for little comment. Five of the six races were won by favourites, and Mr. R. G. Cleary, the Streamstown trainer, who usually does well at the meeting, saddled no less than four winners, three of them being ridden by his son, Mr. J. W. Cleary. The only upset to calculations was when Merrion Strand, the favourite for the Midland Plate, was beaten by Prudent Lad, and few would begrudge to Mrs. E. J. Hope, the owner, or Mr. F. Mitchell, the trainer of the horse, a turn of luck, for both are staunch supporters of racing throughout the country. Details:—

1.45—THE BRUSNA PLATE of 21 sovs. A handicap hurdle race. 1½ m.
Mr. J. T. O'Ryan's bl. m. BLACK LASS, by Oppressor—Seiglinde, 6, 10-7......T. Burns 1

Mr. F. Barbour's Soot, 5, 11-8......T. Kelly, jun. 0
Mr. W. O. Bourke's Carn, 4, 11-0 Mr. J. W. Cleary 0
Mr. F. Mangan's Little Pat, a, 9-9 Mr. J. Mangan 0
(Winner trained by Mr. J. J. Parkinson.)
Betting—6 to 4 agst. BLACK LASS, 3 to 1 Soot, 4 to 1 Queen of Gypsies, 5 to 1 Carn, 6 to 1 Prudent Girl, 20 to 1 Little Pat.

Prudent Girl settled down in front of Queen of Gypsies, Soot, Black Lass, Little Pat and Carn, until half a mile from home, when Queen of Gypsies took the lead, but was soon headed by Black Lass, who won by two lengths; a similar distance divided second and third.

2.15—MIDLAND PLATE of 21 sovs. A handicap flat race. 1½ m.
Mr. E. J. Hope's br. g. PRUDENT LAD, by Juggernaut—Prudent Miss, 5, 10-7 T. Kelly, jun. 1

Betting—2 to 1 on Merrion Strand, 5 to 1 agst. PRUDENT LAD, 7 to 1 Silver River, 10 to 1 Culleenmore, 100 to 8 Alaska, 20 to 1 any other.

Culleenmore refused to start, and Alaska led from Merrion Strand, Thistle Belle, Prudent Lad, Ormint and Silver River, for half-way, when Prudent Lad took the lead, attended by Merrion Strand and Thistle Belle, and, making the remainder of the running, Prudent Lad won easily by three lengths; five lengths separated second and third. Alaska was fourth and Ormint next.

Wrenboy was declared a runner, but was withdrawn by permission.

3.0—LOUGHNAGORE PLATE of 21 sovs. A weight for age steeplechase. 2 m.
Mr. J. Murray's ch. g. RARE SORT, by Bealderg—Simple Paddy's dam, a, 11-12, Mr. J. W. Cleary 1

N.A.C. CHAMPIONSHIPS.

ALL-IRELAND SCHOOLS' AND COLLEGES' CHAMPIONSHIPS.

The attention of intending competitors in the above, which will also be the trials for the selection of Ireland's representatives at the Toilteann and Olympic Games, is drawn to the fact that entries close definitely on 29th inst. The programme includes, in addition to the usual track and field events, a marathon, to be run on Whit Monday, from Navan to Dublin, finishing at Croke Park, over the full marathon distance (26 miles, 385 yards), and the 100 Miles Road Cycling Championship, to be run on Whit Monday, over the Irish Road Club course, starting at Ashtown. Intending competitors tendering entries without fee are liable to suspension.

TO-DAY'S SELECTIONS.

Another instalment of good sport is promised on the Knavesmire this afternoon, with fields likely to reach fair dimensions. Pride of place on the programme is occupied by the Rockingham Handicap, a two miles affair, for which the top weight, Flint Jack, is on the scene of action. His partiality for this track is well established, for he has won two Ebor Handicaps in succession, and in this race last year ran third to Jazz Band. Light Dragoon is a useful performer, and will make a bold bid for this prize. But no matter how the race is viewed from any overnight standpoint it is going to provide backers with an interesting problem. Revival ran well enough in the Chester Cup to suggest a big chance, while Phantom Charley has not run on the flat so far this season. There cannot be any doubt about his stamina, for during the winter he was a successful hurdler. Brisl, too, has to be taken into the reckoning, but for the winner I trust to Flint Jack. In the Malton Sweepstakes Swanage should be returned the winner, unless there is something smart in the unknown division. Selections:—

Stamford Welter—Mullein.
Malton Sweepstakes—Swanage.
Craven Handicap—Winalot.
Rockingham Handicap—Flint Jack.
Eglinton Stakes—Ravelston.
Melrose Handicap—Scherzo.
Apprentice Plate—Navy Cut.

BATH.

TO-DAY'S PROGRAMME AND SELECTIONS.

It is not usual for a Bath May fixture to be carried through without a rainfall to some extent, but there are occasions when the two days' sojourn on Lansdown is a delight, and it is to be hoped that such will be the experience of visitors this week. The programme is quite an attractive one, without prospective thrills by competitors claiming pretension to class, and the fields will be extended enough for every purpose. I am not anticipating large fields on the opening day—in fact, it is possible that the work in that respect will be light during the afternoon. For the Spring Handicap Cottrill has sent on Lady Clara, who needs be appreciably better than Missal at the respective weights in order to possess a winning chance. My Own might, through Park Square, beat them all. It is a very open handicap, and the ground may favour the older horses. Selections are as follow:—

Lansdown Plate—Dawn of Freedom.
Tradesmen's Handicap—Elfterion.
Spring Handicap—My Own.
Doddington Handicap—Jackdaw of Rheims.
Badminton Plate—Orange Plume.
Dyrham Park Plate—Rossmore.

The Tyre for
1-Ton CHEVROLETS
The MACINTOSH N.A.P.
Copy of letter received from
R. H. Foster, Esq.,
South Shields Motor Works, Mill Dam, South Shields.
April 30th, 1924.
Dear Sirs,
You are quite justified in claiming the "N.A.P." as being the tyre for CHEVROLET 1-ton vehicles.
The quality of these tyres is in keeping with the service rendered by the chassis.
Yours faithfully,
p.p. R. H. FOSTER,
H. H. FOSTER.

BRITISH EMPIRE EXHIBITION STAND 112
N.A.P's are unpuncturable, unburstable, and will not skid. They are the most perfect shock-absorbing tyres ever invented. However bad the roads N.A.P's do not jolt or jar, they glide the load over them.
N.A.P's ARE STANDARD FITMENT ON 1-TON CHEVROLET TRUCKS
Guaranteed for 10,000 miles, N.A.P's give many times that mileage—50,000 and over.

ASSOCIATION.

IRISH FREE STATE XI. IN PARIS.

The Irish Free State team, which is to compete in the Olympic Games at Paris, arrived at the French capital on Sunday evening, having left Dublin on Saturday. They received a bye into the second round, and to-day will meet Bulgaria. Should they win their first match, they will have to play the winners of the Belgium v. Sweden match. The team and officials number 30.

The French Press, commenting on the opening of the Olympic football tournament, expresses regret that teams from Great Britain and the Dominions are not participating, and congratulates Ireland on taking part. "The nations which created football, and which to-day are still the most enthusiastic adepts," says the Petit Parisien, "have abstained from entering." The journal goes on to ask whether the decision of the International Olympic Committee not to sanction a definition of an amateur, which was wide enough to admit British professional players, was the real reason for Anglo-Saxon non-participation.

Twenty-two nations have entered for the tournament.

WATER POLO.

OLYMPIC TRIAL AT THE ZOOLOGICAL GARDENS.

BLUES v. WHITES.

The final of the Leinster Branch series of trial matches in connection with the Olympic Games will be held in the Zoological Gardens this evening at 7.0 p.m. sharp. Following the game, the Leinster team will be selected for the final Irish trial. The players nominated are requested to note that no matter what the weather conditions may be the match will be played. A men's diving competition will also be held. Teams:—

Whites—W. Fagan (Sandycove); J. S. Brady (Clontarf) and N. Judd (Dublin); M. A. O'Connor (Dublin); N. M. Purcell (Dublin), J. Beckett (capt.) (Pembroke) and C. Fagan (Sandycove).

Blues—T. J. Stafford (Dublin University); S. Barrett (capt.) (Clontarf) and D. M. Corbett (Dublin University); Jim Molloy (Sandycove); B. G. Fagan (Dublin), H. G. Ellerker (Dublin University) and J. A. O'Connor (Dublin).

Reserves—J. Allen (Sandycove) and T. H. Dockrell (Dublin).

Referee—Mr. H. F. Brennan.

BOXING.

MILLIGAN v. ROLFE.

In a fifteen-rounds contest at the National Sporting Club last night, Tommy Milligan, of Hamilton, met Joe Rolfe, Bermondsey. Rolfe had no chance from the start. He was down several times in the eighth round and hopelessly beaten. In the ninth the fight was stopped, Milligan being a convincing winner.

Mr. R. J. Cleary, of Streamstown, Mullingar, saddled four winners at Kilbeggan, three of them being ridden by his son, Mr. J. W. Cleary.

IRISH CHESS CHAMPIONSHIP.

FOURTH GAME LEAVES CONTESTANTS EQUAL.

This year's contest for the Chess Championship of Ireland is being fought out to the maximum limit, for by his success last night, Mr. Baker has equalised his score with that of the holder of the title at 2 games all. The next game won decides the contest.

Mr. Cranston, playing White, offered the Queen's Gambit, which was declined. The game followed methodical lines, and Black castled at the 6th move, followed by White at the 7th. Queens were exchanged at move 11, and Knights three moves later. There was no perceptible advantage in position.

The play from the 25th move was intensely interesting. A Rook on each side disappeared at moves 29 and 30, and at this stage White had 6 pawns, Bishop, Knight, and Rook, against the same number of pawns, two Bishops and Rook. Both players were exercising the utmost deliberation, but White had exhausted more of his time. At the 35th move their times were: White, 1 hour 50 minutes; Black, 1 hour. Here Black made a long pause before playing B—K 5; White replied Kt. takes B, and a pawn of Black's was isolated in the recapture.

The surviving Bishops were both of the same colour, and between them, from this stage to the end, much finesse took place.

At last, after the Rooks had been exchanged, the critical move was made when Black advanced P to Q—B 4. His pawns at this side had been at B 3, Kt. 3, and Kt. 4. This was the 49th move, and thereafter the superior manœuvring for position was in Mr. Baker's hands, enabling him finally to queen a pawn. At the 64th move White resigned.

LIVERPOOL MEAT IMPORTS.

Nine steamers landed cattle, sheep and lamb carcases and fresh beef at Liverpool during the past week from overseas ports. The vessels, with their freights, were as follows:—The Montcalm, from Montreal, with 1,928 boxes of meat; the Runic, from Australia, with 1,600 carcases of lamb and 336 bags of beef; the Natia, from Buenos Ayres, with 24,128 sheep and lamb carcases, 5,281 boxes, etc., of meat, and 41,624 quarters of beef; the Pardo, from Rio Gallegos, with 750 tons of meat; the Doric, from Montreal with 977 boxes of meat; the Adriatic, from New York, with 1,455 boxes of meat; the Gracia, from Montreal, with 191 cattle; the Winifredian, from Boston, with 628 cattle; and the Welshman, from Montreal, with 849 cattle—making a total of 1,668 cattle and 25,728 sheep and lamb carcases, 9,977 boxes of meat and 41,624 quarters of beef. The 750 tons of meat landed by the Pardo is not classified. Compared with the imports of the preceding week, these figures show an increase of 818 cattle, 5,701 boxes of meat and 39,750 quarters of beef, and a decrease of 139,559 sheep and lamb carcases.

IRISH STOCK EXCHANGES.

DUBLIN.

FUNDS EASIER. BANKS IRREGULAR. GUINNESS GOOD. MARCONIS BETTER. RAILS STAGNANT. PARENT TYRE DEFERRED AGAIN LOWER.

Business was of very limited dimensions on 'Change yesterday outside of very few departments, with the sharp rise in Marconis the only special point of interest. The Funds, local and British, were lower, but without feature or briskness. The tendency was to recover at the close. Banks were busy and on balance higher. Considerable support was offered for Guinness Ord. and Pref. Shares, and higher prices were paid or bid. City Steam Pref. were wanted at an advance. Marconi Ord. advanced on the belated circular issued by the company regarding interim dividends and notifying important developments in long-distance communications. Home Railways were wonderfully dull all day, as exceptional or odd lots changed hands. The prevailing tendency was not well defined. Dublin United Tram Pref. were bid up a little after recent fall. Textiles were mostly higher, but Calico Printers were exceptionally rather dull. Tobaccos were little changed on balance.

In Government Funds, National Loan opened ⅛ lower at 92⅞, but later 92⅞ was paid and bid; the deed stock fell ⅛ to 92⅞.

British Funds were lower. Consols fell ⅛ to 57⅛. War Loan 5 p.c. opened ⅛ lower at 100⅞, but subsequently 100⅞ was paid. Irish Land 3 p.c. eased 1/16 to 64⅛.

In Corporation, etc., issues, Rathmines and Rathgar 3½ p.c. Stock rose 1/16 to 68 for a small lot.

Banks were busy. Hibernians rose 1/16 to 7⅜, Provincials ⅛ to 21⅛, and Royals ⅛ to 12⅛; but Munster and Leinsters fell 1/16 to 6⅝, and Nationals ⅛ to 19⅞, while Bank Stock repeated 275.

Breweries and Distilleries were in favour. Guinness Ord. rose 1/16 to 40⅛, and the Pref. 1/16 to 11⅛ ⅜ nominally, while John Jameson and Son Debs. repeated 7⅛, and J. Power and Son Pref. 20s. 3d.

City Steam Stock rose ⅝ to 100 ineffectually bid. Grand Canal Pref. again realised 70s. British and Irish 6 p.c. Pref. fell 1s. to 13s. for a few shares.

Marconi Ord. rose a further 1s. 10½d. to 31s. 10½d., but later fell back 6d. to 31s. 4½d.

Home Railways were very idle. Great Northern repeated 63⅛, but the Debs. rose ⅛ to 77⅛. Great Southern Ord. fell ⅜ to 45, and the Guaranteed repeated 64⅛. Clogher Valley Baronial repeated 5⅛ and Midland Great Western Ord. 34⅛, while the 4 p.c. Debs. of the latter fell ⅛ to 69⅛.

Among Tramways, Dublin United Pref. rose ⅛ to 9⅛.

Parent Tyre Def., on last marking here, fell 4s. 9d. to 27s. 6d., but Dunlop Rubber Ord. rose 1½d. to 7s. 4½d.

In Bakery Shares, Johnston Ord. repeated 58s. 9d.; and in Drapery Shares, Todd Burns Debs. were firm at 69s.

As regards Manufacturing Shares, Dyers rose 3d. to 62s., and Coats Ord. 3d. to 61s. 6d., while do. "B" Pref. repeated 23s. 9d. Bleachers repeated 51s., but Calicos fell 4½d. to 35s. 10½d. British-American Tobacco fell 6d. to 104s. 6d., and Imperials quoted 72s. 9d., 72s. 10½d., 72s. 7½d., mainly for odd lots. Lever Brothers 7 and 8 p.c. Pref. issues realised both 22s. Helys Pref. at 18s. 3d. were firm, and Vickers rose 3d. to 9s. 9d.

In Trading, etc., Burke Pref. repeated 79s., and the Debs. 8⅞. McKenzie £6 Shares were held for 6⅛, against 6 1/16 the previous price. H. Williams and Co. Ord. fell 2s. 6d. to 60s., and Irish-American Oil Pref. 3d. to 19s. 4½d. Irish Civil Service repeated 21½, Irish Times Pref. 66s. 3d., and Dublin South City Markets 5.

British Controlled Oilfields Common fell 6d. to 13s.-12s. 10½d.

BELFAST.

The week opened quietly on Belfast Exchange, the number of orders being somewhat less than usual. War Loan repeated 100⅞. 101. Consols were brighter at 59 1/16. Conversion Loan was fractionally higher at 78⅛. National War Bonds (4 p.c.) were done at 100 1/16, and 5 p.c. at 106⅛. Northern Bank new "A" were dealt in at 19s. 6d., 19s. 3d. premium, and the old "A" at 5 1/16. Belfast Corporation Loans were busy, the 3½ p.c. (1928) fell ⅛ to 91⅛, 5 p.c. (1945) repeated 100⅛, 3 p.c. (1930) closed 86⅛, and 3½ p.c. (1933) 79⅛. Railways were dull; Belfast and County Down 4 p.c. Pref. fell ⅛ to 72⅛. J. Fulton and Co. repeated 35s. 8d. Imperial Tobacco were active at 72s. 6d., 72s. 7½d. and 72s. 6d. Dunlops repeated 7s. 3d.; Parent Tyre fell 1s. 3d. to 27s. 6d.

LONDON STOCKS QUIET.

NARROW PRICE CHANGES.

The Stock Markets yesterday continued restricted and general conditions showed no change. Fluctuations as a result were narrow, with the exception of the Oil market, where a few sharp movements were recorded. In the gilt-edged market changes were very few. The 5 p.c. War Loan dropped ⅛ to 100⅞, and the New Conversion Stock at 98 fell 1/16.

In FOREIGN GOVERNMENT SECURITIES changes were few. Chinese Fives of 1896 rose ⅛ to 94, while French Fives at 23½ fell ⅛. Uruguay also lost ½ at 57⅛.

HOME RAILWAYS were practically lifeless, the only change of importance being a fall of ⅛ to 98½ in London, Midland and Scottish Ord.

In COLONIAL and FOREIGN RAILWAYS the only changes recorded were advances of ½ in Pacifics and Westerns among Argentines.

OIL SHARES QUIET.

CONDITIONS UNCHANGED.

The Oil Share market yesterday compared favourably with other speculative sections of the House. Conditions were much the same as those prevailing in the closing days of last week, attention being directed chiefly to a few specialities. Chief interest centred once more on the British Controlled issues and Phœnix Oil and Transports, in both of which transactions were on a good scale. A dull start was made by British Controlled, and bear operations were early in evidence, to the accompaniment of a good deal of talk, which emphasised the losses suffered by the company in the past, and which the market fully recognises, while it ignored the progress made within recent times in the Buchivacoa Concession of Venezuela, as revealed in the latest figures of production and shipments. It has been pointed out that the company has a greater production than it can at present handle, and several of the wells are only being allowed to flow through a small choke, while it has been officially stated that the wells now in course of drilling are not being taken down to the oil sand pending the completion of the new six-inch pipe line, which the directors are confident can be kept fully occupied within a few months of its completion. Following a sharp fall in the early hours, the shares made a good rally, although they still showed a decline on balance. The outstanding feature among Rumanians was again provided by Phœnix Oil and Transports, which, following a firm start, came into good demand and further advanced. A certain amount of profit-taking was indulged in later, causing the price to slip back rather sharply, and at the close a small loss was recorded. The market appeared all the better for the shake-out, inasmuch as it eliminated some weak bulls. Other Rumanians presented nothing of outstanding interest. Following a steady start, Lobitos came on offer and finished at a decline, but Anglo-Ecuadorians remained quietly steady. A moderate amount of interest was displayed in Trinidad issues. Leaseholds failed to hold an initial gain, and General Petroleum of Trinidad gave way; but United British met with a little support. Anglo-Egyptian "B" left off steady. Closing prices:—

LONDON MINING MARKET IRREGULAR.

LOW-PRICED "KAFFIRS" FAVOURED.

It cannot be said that the restarting of business on the Stock Exchange yesterday was marked by any particular activity. Indeed, the uncertainty of the political situation at home and abroad seemed to have become more accentuated, and as public interest was at a low ebb, markets generally took on a dull appearance. In the Mining market dealings centred mainly on specialities, and the cheerfulness of these imparted a steady tone to these sections as a whole. Kaffirs could boast a few features, but they were mostly confined to the lower priced descriptions, among which Rose Deep were prominent on what was stated to be good buying, while for a similar reason East Rands enjoyed a sharp spurt, the rise being also accompanied by rumours of good developments in the Hercules section of the property. In this connection, the report of the General Mining and Finance Corporation states that negotiations for a working agreement or amalgamation between East Rand and the Cinderella are proceeding. Generals, themselves, were easier, some disappointment being expressed at the absence of a dividend, and the financial position of the Corporation has been further strengthened. The leaders were not much in evidence, but Central Mining finished a trifle harder, and Rand Mines, "Johnnies," Randfontein, Brakpan, Geduld, and Springs Mines were well maintained. T.C.L. failed to benefit from the dividend announcement. Few changes were recorded in the Rhodesian section, although there was considerable activity. Chartered were a good market and higher, but Cam and Motor remained at the former level. Selukwe came on offer and receded rather sharply, and, although recovering later, were still below Friday's level; but Zambesia Exploring strengthened. In the absence of Paris interest, Diamonds were allowed to sag, De Beers, Jagersfontein, and Consol. Diamond all closing easier. A rise of £5 15s. to £206 17s. 6d. per ton in the price of tin imparted a better tone to the share market, and, with only one or two exceptions, prices moved towards higher levels, the lead being taken by Siamese. Closing prices:—

INDUSTRIALS IRREGULAR.

MARCONI GROUP STRONGER.

In the absence of any increase in the volume of business, Miscellaneous and Industrial markets opened the week quietly yesterday, and an irregular tendency was again exhibited. The Marconi group displayed fresh strength on the circular issued over the week-end. The Ord. finished 1/16 up at 1 9/16, business taking place up to 32s. 10½d., while the Prefs. at 1 7/16 also showed a rise of 1/16. Cables were off colour, Easterns being noticeably flat. There was some demand for Electrical Manufacturing shares, as a result of which recoveries took place in English and Siemens Bros. Coal shares remained fairly steady. In Gas Stocks, Imperial Continental appreciated. Among Motors Napiers received fresh support and further improved, while low-priced Tramway and Traction Prefs. issues held their ground. Among Land shares Sudan Plantations suffered from realisations and gave way rather sharply. Otherwise prices were fairly well maintained. Nitrates had a firmer appearance, San Sebastians responding to the satisfactory report and dividend announcement. Expectations of an increased dividend were responsible for a further demand for Mond Nickels, which left off 1s. higher on balance at 38s. Armstrongs were wanted and rose 6d. to 14s. 9d., while slight improvements occurred in Babcocks to 46s. 3d. and in Guest-Keens to 38s. 9d. Exceptionally, South Durhams gave way to 57s. 6d., or 6d. lower on balance. Except for a slight set-back in Cairn Lines to 15s. 9d., Shipping issues did not move. In the Banking list Union Discounts put on ⅛ to 17½, while Chartered of Indias finished ⅛ better at 19⅞. National of New Zealands, however, fell 1/16 to 6⅛. Insurances hardly moved. Textiles mostly moved within narrow limits. Bradford Dyers strengthened to 62s. 6d., and Coats put on 6d. to 61s. 6d., while Calico Prefs. stiffened to 18s. 6d. The Ord. of the last-named, however, eased to 36s. Courtaulds left off 6d. lower at 57s. 6d., and some selling of Dyestuffs Prefs. caused a fall of 6d. to 10s. 6d., while Celanese Prefs. eased to 10s. Breweries continued a firm market. Watney Combe Deferred continued in favour and finished 1 higher at 208½, business taking place at up to 211, while South Africans rose 1/16 to 1 13/16. Caterers held their ground. Tobaccos were little dealt in. Newspaper shares were easier in places. Associateds shed 3d. to 21s., and Waterlow Deferred fell ⅛ to 18. Among recent issues Vickers Debs. improved to ⅛ discount and T. Tilling Debs. to 93. North Wales Power Debs. moved up to par.

GORDON HOTELS.

PROPOSED REORGANISATION OF CAPITAL.

In submitting proposals for reorganisation of capital, the directors of Gordon Hotels, Ltd., state that the problems which have to be dealt with are:—(a) The extinction of the following items on the assets side of the balance sheet—Requisitioned hotels, £489,675; cost of issue of notes, £9,415; alterations, improvements, etc., carried forward, including additions since last balance sheet and expenses of the reconstruction, £38,362. Total, £537,452. (b) The arrears of Preference dividends.

With regard to (a), if the items mentioned are not extinguished by a reduction of capital, they will have to be extinguished gradually out of revenue, which would mean that the arrears of Preference dividend might take years to liquidate, and the resumption of a dividend on the Ordinary shares would be indefinitely postponed. It is, therefore, proposed to write off from the issued Ordinary share capital £386,000, being £4 off each £10 Ordinary share, and off the Deferred shares £1,000, being the amount paid up, or credited as paid up, which will provide £387,000 in part liquidation of the £537,452 mentioned above. The balance of £150,452 will be extinguished by crediting the sum received from the Government in connection with the claim for good-will, viz., £92,604, and also by utilising certain credits which have been secured in connection with adjustment of liability for income tax.

If the proposals are approved, the way will be clear for the resumption of Ordinary dividends as earnings permit. It is proposed to sub-divide each £10 share into 10 shares of £1 each. The Deferred shares will be eliminated by the payment of £20 per share for 64 shares, and the 36 shares held in trust for the company will be cancelled. It is proposed that arrears of Preference dividend shall be satisfied by the payment to the Preference shareholders of one year's dividend in cash and the distribution of eight new £1 Ordinary shares and two new £1 Preference shares for every £100 Preference share capital now held.

LIVERPOOL COTTON MARKET.

(FROM OUR LIVERPOOL COMMERCIAL CORRESPONDENT.)

Business during the past week in the Cotton market has been of small dimensions, operators, as has been the case for some time past, adopting a waiting attitude pending some definite trend in new crop prospects.

In the early part of the week these were for the most part favourable, but towards the close conditions changed for the worse, and the weekly weather report proved far from cheerful reading. Moreover, with the near approach of the condition figures, it is feared that both traders and operators have placed rather too much optimism on the new crop. There is undoubtedly a large short account, and, with talk of a lower condition figure than last year, it would not be surprising to find a repetition of last season's experiences.

The market at the moment is purely a weather one—interest in the old crop position hangs fire—and movements will largely be governed by the news from overseas.

American futures on the week are 11 points down to 29 points up.

THE MONEY MARKET.

LOANS STRINGENT.

BORROWING FROM THE BANK.

Considerable surprise was caused by the fact that Lombard street borrowed some money from the Bank of England for a week on the usual high terms. However, this action, which may possibly be followed by further similar borrowing, is merely preparation for the end of the month and the uncertain conditions anticipated during the next few days. On Friday, for example, no Treasury bills are maturing. Conditions were hard, but not sufficiently so to justify this special borrowing. Day-to-day money was 2½ p.c., sometimes 2¾, and balances for the night were not obtained any cheaper. Fixtures remained at 2¼ p.c. The tone of discounts became harder, but only a small volume of business was going on. Fine three months' bank bills were usually quoted 3⅛, with 3 3/16 p.c. mentioned occasionally, the new Treasury bills being practically 3 1/16. There was buying on the part of the banks for late June paper at 2⅞, Julys being nominally 2 15/16-3 p.c.

Gold was 2d. per oz. lower at 94s. 11d. Silver further declined ⅛d. per oz. for spot and 1/16d. for forward delivery to 34 3/16d. and 34 1/16d. respectively.

Only a moderate volume of business was going on in the market for foreign exchanges, and the tendency generally was rather better. French francs, after starting at 80.50, rallied to 79.55-79.60, with Belgium 93-93¼ and Italy 98⅛-98⅜. Sterling was a little higher on New York at 4.34 11/16-4.34 13/16 dollars. Holland was 11.62-11.63, with Switzerland 24.58-24.60 and Spain 31.63-31.66. The following are closing quotations:—

DIVIDENDS AND REPORTS.

BRIDGES (PROPRIETORS).—Report of Bridges and Co. (Proprietors) for first period ended 16th February, 1924, states that company holds all issued Ordinary Shares of Bridges and Co. Dividend on Ordinary Shares amounts to £21,600, free of tax. After making provision for this company's charges, writing off one-fifth of discount on company's Five-Year Registered Notes and of underwriting commission and £718 off preliminary expenses, there remained £16,402. Dividend on the Eight per Cent. Preference Shares to 16th February amounted, less tax, to £8,031, leaving £8,371, which directors recommend be carried forward.

CALTEX OIL CO.—The report states that the whole of the company's leases and other assets—with the exception of the company's holding in the Cia Petrolero, Mexico y Espana, S.A.—have been transferred to its operating company, registered in Mexico under the title of Cia de Petroleo Caltex, S.A. The report states that the operations of the Cia Petrolero Mexico y Espana, S.A., have been successfully conducted to date, and in the event of a dividend being declared by that company, it is proposed to make a distribution direct to certificate holders in the same manner as the dividend about to be declared by the Cia de Petroleo Caltex, S.A. Operations of the Cia de Petroleo Caltex resulted in a profit for the period ended October 31st of $342,500, or approximately £78,500, which it is proposed to carry forward.

GALKANDEWATTE TEA.—Dividend of 12 per cent.

GENERAL MINING AND FINANCE CORPORATION.—Owing to the unsettled world conditions, which for a long time past have hampered the normal flow of capital for mining and other ventures, it is not deemed advisable to declare a dividend for the past year, but rather to conserve resources by transferring £100,000 of the profit to a general reserve account, thus still further strengthening the financial position of the Corporation and placing it in a more advantageous position for undertaking any promising new business and carrying out its legitimate functions as a mining and financial company.

GENERAL LIFE ASSURANCE.—Dividend at rate of 10 per cent. per annum, with a bonus of 2½ per cent. per annum on paid-up capital, free of tax.

GREATER SCALA, BIRMINGHAM.—Final dividend of 5 per cent., less tax.

MALACCA RUBBER PLANTATION.—After paying Pref dividend for 1923, £14,581 carried forward. Directors are unable to state probable crop for 1924. They have sold forward for delivery out of 1924 crop 719,040lbs., at an average price equivalent to 1/5.25d. per lb. ld. London.

NEW INVERTED INCANDESCENT GAS LAMP.—Dividend of 5 per cent., free of tax.

RIVERSIDE (SELANGOR) RUBBER.—Report for year 1923 shows balance at credit of profit and loss, including amount brought in, of £2,230, which is carried forward.

SCOTTISH MALAY RUBBER.—Report for year 1923 shows balance at credit of profit and loss of £7,200, including balance brought in. Directors are unable to recommend dividend at this time, and balance is carried forward.

SCOTTISH AND CANADIAN GENERAL INVESTMENT.—Dividend of 3 per cent. per annum, less tax, on Ord.

TRANSVAAL CONSOLIDATED LAND AND EXPLORATION.—Dividend of 7½ per cent.

MINING REPORT.

Cam and Motor Gold Mining Co.—Motor No. 14—Level lode has been intersected in crosscut at approximately 528 feet south of main shaft, with results as follows:—On the north side of crosscut average width is 10½ feet; average value is 147/-. On the south side of crosscut average width is 13 feet; average value is 111/-. Average width 11½ feet, average value 123/-, over crosscut, which has exposed full width of lode. Visible gold is seen in the quartz.

FINANCIAL PARAGRAPHS.

London Stock markets commenced the week yesterday in very subdued fashion, and throughout the day business was unusually restricted. At the close there were very few changes to record in quotations in any of the markets, although here and there, in the absence of support, a slightly easier tendency prevailed. This state of things applied to the Gilt-edged group, in which the 5 per cent. War Loan, Consols and the old Conversion Loan showed fractional losses, while the rest of the leaders remained firm, but unchanged. Indias were neglected, save for the 4½ p.c. issue, which went a little lower. The market may justifiably be described as featureless. It is under stood that the Commonwealth of Australia Loan of £10,000,000 was fully subscribed. Dealings in this Loan were commenced on the basis of a small discount, but an improvement subsequently took place, and at the close of the House the price was returned at 1/16 prem.

The Anglo-South American Bank's telegram from Buenos Ayres, dated 22nd May, states that ploughing and sowing for the wheat, linseed and oats crops is proceeding everywhere under excellent conditions, and there is every promise that the area sown to these cereals last year will be exceeded. The cultivation of barley has been considerably extended in the South. The picking and shelling of maize is being actively continued. Good quantities of wheat still remain along the railways, and supplies of maize are now coming into the sheds. The camps are in good condition. The first estimate of the maize crop for the current season issued by the Statistical Department of the Argentine Ministry of Agriculture places the total yield at 6,860,000 tons, which is higher than the actual production in the five preceding years.

TROPICAL PRODUCE MARKET.

(FROM OUR LIVERPOOL COMMERCIAL CORRESPONDENT.)

Business in the tropical produce market during the past week has been well maintained, with prices showing a further advance. In the palm oil section the honours have been carried off by the better grades of oil, though buyers decline to be rushed, the result being that while prices show a further advance the highest point has not been held. More interest has been shown by the Continent than for some time past, but even so buyers move warily, and most of the business is credited to shorts covering in the near positions. Oil on the spot continues scarce, and still commands a stiff premium over late summer positions, such as Lagos, and softs 15s. per ton, in medium 22s. 6d. to 25s. and hards about 20s. per ton. The week's sales are estimated at about 1,800 tons, Lagos being quoted £36, Sherbrough £35 10s. and Niger and Benin £37 7s. 6d.

Palm kernels have been somewhat reactionary, and, after an active demand in the early part of the day, have eased off, finishing with a dull tone. Crushers for the time being, at any rate, have adopted a policy of looking on, but even this apathy has failed to induce importers to follow any decline. Early shipment still enjoys a full premium despite offerings of February-April and March-May being more plentiful than was the case a week ago. Hull consumers have bought May-June shipment or afloat at £19.

In the markets for ground nuts values show little change with business rather restricted. Nigerian decorticated afloat fetches £22 2s. 6d. Nut oils remain neglected.

PROSPECTUS.

BEECHAM ESTATES AND PILLS, LIMITED

(Incorporated under the Companies Acts, 1908-1917).

Proprietors of Covent Garden Markets and Estate and of Beecham's Pills.

CAPITAL.

900,000 8% Cumulative Preference Shares of £1 each	£900,000
950,000 Ordinary Shares of £1 each	£950,000
Total Authorised Capital	£1,850,000

Six per cent. First Mortgage Debenture Stock will be issued for £1,000,000, to be redeemed in 1950 at £110 per cent., or at the Company's option after 31st December, 1939, up to 31st December, 1949, at £115 per cent.

Trustees for the Debenture Stockholders: THE LAW DEBENTURE CORPORATION LIMITED, 24 Old Broad Street, E.C.2.

Issue of 900,000 8 per cent. CUMULATIVE PREFERENCE SHARES of £1 each at par,

DIVIDENDS PAYABLE 1st JANUARY and 1st JULY. The first dividend, calculated on amounts payable on application and allotment as from date of allotment and on subsequent instalment as from due date of same, will be paid on 1st January next.

The 8 per cent. Cumulative Preference Shares rank in priority both as regards dividend and return of capital over all other Shares of the Company, but confer no further right to participate in profits or assets. Under the provisions of the Articles of Association no further general issue of Debenture Stock or Debentures may be created without the consent of an extraordinary resolution of the Preference Shareholders attending and voting at a General Meeting of that class.

It is provided in the Articles of Association that the balance of the sum available for distribution after payment of the Dividend on the Preference Shares and 10 per cent. per annum on the Ordinary Shares shall be placed to a Special Reserve Fund until that Fund amounts to £500,000.

SECRETARY and REGISTERED OFFICES (pro tem).

ARTHUR H. JOHNSON, O.B.E., The Covent Garden Estate Office, Central Avenue, Covent Garden Market, W.C.2.

This Company owns the world-renowned business of Beecham's Pills, and seven and a half acres of freehold estate in the heart of London, comprising The Covent Garden Markets.

The annual average profit from Beecham's Pills for the last five years is	£156,667
The net revenue from The Covent Garden Estate properties last year amounted to	£103,834
	£260,491

This sum covers the annual amount required for the payment of the Preference dividend nearly three times.

Capital appreciation and income from Covent Garden may be confidently expected to grow, so that the dividend on the Pref. Shares should be fully provided for out of the Markets and Estate income alone.

There is great scope for considerable expansion in the profits of Beecham's Pills.

After payment of the Pref. dividend not more than 10 p.c. per annum may be paid on the Ordinary Shares until a Special Reserve Fund of £500,000 has been built up.

THE HOUSE FOR MEN
TENNIS WEAR.

White Flannel Trousers. "Security" Tennis Shirts.

White Flannel Trousers for Tennis is the RULE. "SECURITY" Tennis Shirts is the EXCEPTION. The "SECURITY" is a combination of Shirt and Short Trunk Drawers, which prevents the body rising and rocking around waist. It is comfortable and sightly. The man who does not wear it misses much. A White Trousers should fit well—few White Flannels do. Let THE HOUSE FOR MEN supply this season's needs in Tennis wear.
